Anglo-Japanese Treaty to be Killed

WASHINGTON MEET WILL CAUSE DEATH OF DISLIKED PACT

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)
WASHINGTON, Oct. 31.—That the Anglo-Japanese treaty alliance will be canceled and never will be renewed is the report from an authoritative source today. It will be brought indirectly through the Washington Conference on the Limitation of Armament. Great Britain, the report says, will find a way to cut the tie that binds, and do it without leaving any outward evidence that either party to the pact harbors resentment because of its fate.

Hard Blow Dealt Harvey Talks of Disarmament.

(BY A. F. NIGHT WIRE.)
INDIANAPOLIS, Oct. 31.—Collection of funds of the United Mine workers of America through the check-off system by which union membership dues are deducted from miners' wages by operators, was ended today by Federal Judge Anderson. His order enjoined all mine officials and members from using to subsidize the Williamson field in West Virginia, where there has been marked the year's strike. The order is temporary, but effective until changed by the court.

PLANS MASS MEETING.

After issuance of the order, reports from Knox county, a big mine producing center, said 3000 miners planned mass meetings to organize their protest. The order indicated the possibility of any contracts between operators and miners being broken by the union on the check-off.

TELLS OF CONSPIRACY.

This conspiracy, he said, existed between union miners and operators in the central coal fields of West Virginia, Ohio and Pennsylvania, and that the "check-off" operators had been using to bring the only competitive field into the combination.

More than 100,000 persons filled the broad plaza in front of the Union Station, crowding the slopes of the new Memorial Park, clinging to ledges, window sills, vantage points on the bluffs, standing on the tops of a sea of automobiles, to join in a wild ovation that drowned the blaring of a dozen bands.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31.—America's hero of heroes of the World War, a hero officially rated as greater than Sgt. Alvin York or Maj. Charles A. Whittlesey, has been designated by the War Department as body-bearer for the infantry branch for the unknown dead who will be buried at Arlington National Cemetery November 11.

The hero of heroes, selected as the greatest of the long list of American soldiers who performed valiant deeds, is Sgt. Samuel Woodfill of the Regular Army, a native of Indiana. He was born at Bellefonte, Ind., where his brothers and sisters still live.

CONVENTION OF

of America and Body.Vociferous Greeting Given to Allied Generals.Welfare of Men Close to His Heart, Harding Message.

that nothing was closer to his heart than the welfare of the former service men. From Italy and Belgium came word of faith in America and the Legion. The American Federation of Labor announced that it stands behind the Legion's campaign against radicals and that it will never tolerate introduction into this country of socialism or Bolshevism.

MANY SILENT GREETINGS. Many military organizations, including the United Confederate Veterans and G. A. R., sent greetings, while good wishes came from Marshal Foch and the Legion. Italy sent its message through Gen. Diaz. Belgium's greetings and her thanks for American aid during the war were extended by Gen. Jacques.

President Harding's message was brought by Vice-President Coolidge, while George L. Berry, president of the International Printing Pressmen's Union, and a delegate, spoke for the American Federation of Labor.

CONTINUOUS OVATION. The convention was aroused to the greatest pitch of excitement during the afternoon when Gen. Diaz and Gen. Jacques delivered their addresses. The demonstrations proceeded almost continuously until both men had ceased speaking and John G. Emery, national commander of the Legion, which the convention today authorized them to wear Marshal Foch and M. Charles Bertrand of France also are authorized to wear the emblem.

Wearing military uniforms of their native countries, Gen. Diaz and Gen. Jacques were escorted to boxes on opposite sides of the convention hall. Their appearance had been preceded by a march around the floor by twenty-five Congressional Medal of Honor men and the shouts had hardly ceased when the uproar took on a different tone, and the convention found itself extending a noisy, cordial welcome to Gen. Jacques. The general was obviously pleased at the attention showered upon him, but no more so than was Gen. Diaz, who entered a short three minutes behind Gen. Jacques. Both men were compelled to stand several minutes while the crowd delivered its ovation.

MARCH OF MEDAL MEN. Jacques. The general was obviously pleased at the attention showered upon him, but no more so than was Gen. Diaz, who entered a short three minutes behind Gen. Jacques. Both men were compelled to stand several minutes while the crowd delivered its ovation.

Another ovation awaited Gen. Diaz when he delivered his address, speaking in Italian. He spoke with pride at the accomplishments of American troops who fought beside the Italians, and said Italy always would remember with gratitude America's efforts.

SPEAKS IN ENGLISH. Gen. Jacques received an extended ovation when the crowd discovered he could speak English. His halting "ladies and gentlemen," spoken with quaint accent and beaming eyes, was met with a wild and shouting of "atta boy," "you tell 'em," "let's go." It was a minute or more before he could continue and say that Belgium was grateful for all America had done.

After the visitors had departed, Maj. Gen. John A. Leinen, commander-in-chief of the United States Marine Corps told what it meant to be a marine during the war.

He was followed by Gen. Robert McBride of Indianapolis, senior vice-commander and representing the commander-in-chief of the Grand Army of the Republic, who delivered a message of greeting on behalf of his organization.

MIX-UP OCCURS. A mix-up came just before adjournment when, on motion of a Missouri delegate, permission was sought for a representative of the Missouri Women's Christian Temperance Union to speak. The motion was rejected, on an aye and nay vote on the ground that a speech dealing with temperance would be partisan and improper.

Later J. W. Vinsler, national chaplain of the Legion, explained that the Missouri W. C. T. U. merely wished to extend its greetings. The convention then voted to reconsider.

Mrs. Nell Berger, president of the Missouri W. C. T. U., spoke for her organization and extended its support to the Legion in its campaign for Congressional legislation providing compensation for soldiers.

Just before adjournment, the convention voted to make the report of the committee on the next convention.

At the request of Commander Emery, the convention arose and stood for three minutes in silent tribute to the memory of the late F. W. Galbraith, national commander of the Legion, who was killed in a motor accident near Indianapolis last June.

Emery then proceeded to deliver his report to the convention. More cheers followed Emery's declaration that the Legion was the organization that stood by its word and that it would make its stand known to the world in unmistakable terms without consideration to party politics.

That is the task which lies before the great American Legion. Those who made a victorious peace possible shall stand side by side in peace. They stand steadily against petty jealousies and move forward together along the path of civilization and progress.

"Great peoples are moved by petty incidents and are all too readily swayed by the breath of scandal and propaganda, but if this great organization sets itself steadfastly to profit by the terrible lessons of history, we may surely hope with confidence that the past which was sealed with the blood of thousands of our comrades will be upheld and treasured as a very sacred thing, a bulwark of peace."

The one great lesson, therefore, that we have learnt through bitter experience and the sacrifices is the value of comradeship.

PEACE MESSAGE
SENT BY ITALY.Gen. Diaz Speaks to Legion at Kansas City.Hopes Sword May be Sheathed and Peace Triumph.Gen. Jacques Says Belgium Can't Forget Aid.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)

KANSAS CITY, Oct. 31.—Hope that the sword may be sheathed and that peace and labor may triumph for the good of all, was the message brought to members of the American Legion, in convention here today, by Italy's foremost soldier, Gen. Armando Vittorio Diaz.

"The war is over," said Gen. Diaz, in conveying Italy's message to the American veterans of the World War. "From this moment on, not war, but peace, labor and progress."

Gen. Diaz in his address said: "To the service men of the United States I extend my warmest greetings. You are the American men who no nobly and in manifold ways took their part in this war, to the citizens of this great republic, I bring this message of their Italian comrades, the Italian people, who see in this solemn convention, in presence of representatives of the victorious Allied armies, a deep and noble common glory, identical ideals and significant human and civil solidarity."

HONOR TO UNKNOWN. "I am here among you at the moment in which Italy is about to render solemn honor of her unknown soldier, that moment in which all Italian hearts exult in an humble but glorious union, as in a symbol, the sacrifices, the struggles, and the glories which made their country free and realized a vow which seemed a dream. On November 11, 1918, will take place in the United States a similar ceremony, solemn in its austerity, significant in thought, and exalted in character."

These two ceremonies taking place so far apart are the eloquent compendium of our war, our common sufferings, our common hopes, our common glories.

ITALY REMEMBERS. "Italy remembers and appreciates the timely coming in of the United States, the colossal expeditions, the wealth of material put at the disposal of the Allies to bring about the collapse of two tyrannical empires, the spirit with which the American soldiers took part in the war."

Gen. Jacques Speaks. Belgium does not and cannot forget the aid given her by American in the World War. Gen. Jacques, commander of the Third Division of the Belgian army, declared today in an address at the convention here of the American Legion.

"We do not forget, we cannot forget," the Belgian military leader asserted, "all we owe you for the aid you brought us during the most tragic moments in the history of our glorious country; we cannot forget the name of Herbert Hoover the great philanthropist, thanks to whom our wives and children did not starve in occupied Belgium. Above all, we do not forget the name of Gen. Pershing, who conducted the American soldiers to the final victory."

You came into the struggle when the Germans having disposed of the Russians, turned all their forces against us, trying to smash us with the final blow. When you drew the sword we knew that we were victorious and a new thrill of enthusiasm passed into the ranks of our soldiers.

And finally, when the armistice was signed, you were by our side with the French and British divisions, ready to give the last push and to clear the road to Brussels for our beloved King Albert."

CALIFORNIA STANDARD BOND ISSUE PROBABLE.

NEW YORK, Oct. 31.—Negotiations were reported today to be under way between the Standard Oil Company of California and local banks for financing involving the issue of $1,000,000 of bonds of fairly long maturity.

It is said that the financing is connected with Standard of California's holdings in the Pacific Oil Company.

PLEADS FOR COMRADESHIP. Allies Must Stand Side by Side in Peace, Admiral Beatty Tells Legion.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)

KANSAS CITY, Oct. 31.—The spirit of comradeship among nations uniting to fight for liberty in the war must be kept alive in peace, Admiral Beatty, commander of the Grand Fleet in the North Sea, declared at the American Legion convention. "To insure that the sacrifices have not been made in vain," he said, "there remains a task to be performed."

"That is the task which lies before the great American Legion. Those who made a victorious peace possible shall stand side by side in peace. They stand steadily against petty jealousies and move forward together along the path of civilization and progress."

"Great peoples are moved by petty incidents and are all too readily swayed by the breath of scandal and propaganda, but if this great organization sets itself steadfastly to profit by the terrible lessons of history, we may surely hope with confidence that the past which was sealed with the blood of thousands of our comrades will be upheld and treasured as a very sacred thing, a bulwark of peace."

PERSHING NAMES
GREATEST HERO.Coolidge Tells Veterans of
President's Ideals.Welfare Near Heart, He Tells Legion Convention.Arms Conference Part of His Solemn Obligation.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)

KANSAS CITY, Oct. 31.—Nothing is closer to the heart of President Harding than to make the relief for incapacitated war veterans absolutely complete; no man not in the service has a deeper appreciation of what that service meant, of the obligations incurred by the country, and no man will go further to minister to the true welfare of those who have been in the service and their dependents than the President of the United States, Vice-President Calvin Coolidge told the national convention of the American Legion here today.

PRESIDENT'S IDEALS. "He will never sacrifice you for his own welfare. He will sacrifice himself for your welfare. He will do all that can be done to prevent the need of you again sacrificing yourselves for your country's welfare," Coolidge said.

The Vice-President reviewed what has been done so far toward relieving the incapacitated veterans; paid high tribute to the valor of America's armed forces, and declared the Legion represented a "new national consciousness."

He made a plea against sectionalism, which, he said, had been largely wiped out by the fusing forces of war, and predicted a great future for the nation's life for the American Legion.

"In recognition of the solemn obligation to you and your countrymen of economy and peace, a conference of certain great powers, called on the initiative of the President of the United States, is about to assemble in Washington," he continued. "It proposed to search for a solution of problems arising from the convergence of many different nations in the Pacific and to provide by mutual agreement a limitation of armament."

It proposed, he promised relief at home and a better understanding abroad. If it can be accomplished its blessings will be reflected from every freeland in the land."

Parents are Dead. "My parents are dead," he said, "but my father was of Welsh descent and my mother's ancestors were German. I am, therefore, a descendant of the two nations who, in the little town of Bellevue, where my brothers and sisters still reside, I deem it a great honor to bear for America's unknown dead soldier, the greatest honor."

He will ever sacrifice you for his own welfare. He will sacrifice himself for your welfare. He will do all that can be done to prevent the need of you again sacrificing yourselves for your country's welfare," Coolidge said.

BRINGS WORD

President's Ideals.Welfare Near Heart, He Tells Legion Convention.Arms Conference Part of His Solemn Obligation.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)

KANSAS CITY, Oct. 31.—Nothing is closer to the heart of President Harding than to make the relief for incapacitated war veterans absolutely complete; no man not in the service has a deeper appreciation of what that service meant, of the obligations incurred by the country, and no man will go further to minister to the true welfare of those who have been in the service and their dependents than the President of the United States, Vice-President Calvin Coolidge told the national convention of the American Legion here today.

PRESIDENT'S IDEALS. "He will never sacrifice you for his own welfare. He will sacrifice himself for your welfare. He will do all that can be done to prevent the need of you again sacrificing yourselves for your country's welfare," Coolidge said.

The Vice-President reviewed what has been done so far toward relieving the incapacitated veterans; paid high tribute to the valor of America's armed forces, and declared the Legion represented a "new national consciousness."

He made a plea against sectionalism, which, he said, had been largely wiped out by the fusing forces of war, and predicted a great future for the nation's life for the American Legion.

UTILITY MUST KEEP GOING.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 31.—The Railroad Commission today established a principle of regulation that a public utility, to retain exclusive rights in a field, must be serving it to an extent where competition would involve duplication and waste, and must be alert to render all proper service not only to patrons but to prospective patrons. When the entrance of a new utility into a field will result in greater industrial development, it will not be excluded, the commission ruled.

The principle was contained in a section permitting the Great Western Power Company to render industrial service in Butte county, over the protest of the Pacific Gas and Electric Company, which recharged its competitor with invalidating its territory. The contest arose over the right to furnish power to the Hutchinson Lumber Company of West Virginia at a mill to be erected near Orville.

The commission found that the Great Western had actually developed this piece of business, while its competitor virtually refused to serve the logging works.

the Peking government is a pro-

SOLDIER BONUS IS DISCUSSED.

Senate Gets Nowhere After Talking.

Stuck for Time on Chewing-Gum Section.

Graduated Capital Stock Tax is Adopted.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31.—After the day discussing the soldier bonus, the Senate tonight was stuck for time on the chewing-gum section of the tax revision bill. The bill provides for a graduated capital stock tax of 1 on each $1000 of stock between $5000 and $10,000, and 1 1/2 per $1000 on all over $10,000. The amendment proposing a graduated corporation capital stock tax of 1 on each $1000 of stock between $5000 and $10,000, and 1 1/2 per $1000 on all over $10,000 was adopted. The Senate then turned to the chewing-gum section, but it was voted, 25 to 24, to repeal this section, and the bill was then passed by a vote of 25 to 24.

BONUS IS DISCUSSED.

There was a four hour discussion today of the Reed amendment regarding the soldier bonus.

HONOR MEMORY OF GALBRAITH.

Legion Convention Pauses Midst of Job; Leave Tribute as Members Pay Tribute

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

KANSAS CITY, Oct. 31.—The American Legion paused in its national convention today to pay tribute to the memory of Col. F. W. Galbraith Jr., late National Legion Commander.

The delegates and visitors stood in bowed silence for three minutes near the close of the morning session out of respect to their dead comrade.

profits tax and to seize proceeds to defray the costs of the five-way adjusted compensation plan.

This was followed by the introduction of an amendment by Senators Simmons of North Carolina, and Walsh of Massachusetts, Democratic members on the Finance Committee, proposing payment of the bonus out of the interest on the nation's foreign debt.

The latter amendment will not be formally moved for adoption in the Senate, its authors announced, until action had been taken on the Reed amendment. Senator Reed is delaying formal presentation of his amendment until there has been full discussion of the question.

NO PLACE IN TAX BILL.

Senator Penrose, in charge of the tax bill, said it was the plan of the majority to move to pay the Reed proposal on the table on the ground that the soldier's bonus has no place in a tax measure.

Senator New, Republican, Indiana, opened the bonus discussion with the declaration that in his judgment, the Reed amendment would be in conflict with the Constitution, as it proposed to tax one class of citizens for the benefit of another.

This contention was denied by Senator Reed. He declared a vote to table his amendment would be a "coward's vote." Attacking Secretary Mellon for recommending delay on the bonus measures, he declared the Treasury head was connected with many oppressive and powerful financial and industrial institutions.

AMENDMENT ADOPTED.

Getting back to the tax bill, the Senate adopted a Finance Committee amendment which would exempt from taxation American corporations and citizens in the Philippines and Porto Rico unless their income was sent to stockholders in the United States. It was explained that this would place Americans in those islands on the same footing as traders of other countries.

Before the Senate voted on the amendment, the Finance Committee withdrew its proposal to exempt from taxation incomes deriving from China by American corporations and citizens, 50 per cent of whose business was done in that republic. Senator Smoot of Utah said it had been decided to

GALLOWS FOR BRUMFIELD.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

ROSEBURG (Or.) Oct. 31.—Dr. Richard Melvin Brumfield today was sentenced to be hanged Friday, January 13, for the murder of Dennis Russell. His neck was swathed in heavy bandages, which covered the gashes inflicted by himself recently in an attempt to cheat the gallows. Russell's headless body was found under Dr. Brumfield's wrecked automobile near here July 12.

Motions to set aside the verdict and for a retrial were over-ruled by Judge Bingham. Dr. Brumfield stood alone to receive the sentence. When asked if he had anything to say, he said:

"Only this, your honor, that as God is my judge, I know nothing of how Dennis Russell came to his death."

He turned deathly pale when sentence was pronounced. Mrs. Brumfield slumped down in her chair but did not break down.

let this situation be taken care of by the Dyer bill.

The Senate adopted, 35 to 30, an amendment to the capital stock tax section which would permit holding companies to deduct from their capital stock tax the amount of such taxes paid by their subsidiaries.

RELIEF MEASURE TO HELP FLOOD VICTIMS.

RED CROSS WILL BE ASKED TO TAKE CHARGE OF WORK AT BRITANNIA BEACH.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]

VANCOUVER, Oct. 31.—Relief measures for the victims of the flood Friday night at Britannia Beach, where thirty-six lives were lost and scores made homeless, were started today by the Civic Finance Committee, which voted $5000, subject to the City Council's approval. An emergency relief committee decided to ask the Red Cross to take charge of the distribution of clothing and other aid in the flooded village.

Reports indicated extensive relief also was needed in the Cognition district, where property damage was heavy, many homes destroyed or partly wrecked.

LOYD GEORGE GETS MANDATE.

Unionists Lose Fight for Censure of Premier.

Gives Promise of Early Aid for Ulsterites.

Ready to Resign Portfolio if Commons Decees.

It would either transfer the necessary powers to the northern Parliament under the provisions of the act, or, otherwise, it would ask Parliament to pass a short act.

"No compact can come into effect without the authority of Parliament," said Lloyd George. "Every detail will be submitted to Parliament. The agreement, if there be an agreement, will have to be in the form of an act of Parliament."

He suggested that the government ought to come to the house and say "we want your sanction for this or that proposal." [Cries of "Why not?"]

MUST HAVE LATITUDE.

"No negotiations could be successfully conducted like that. There must be some latitude; there are certain basic principles, but these have been declared to the House repeatedly. [Cries of "What are they?"]

"We have declared to Parliament repeatedly that the government is prepared to meet any representative of the Irish people who could deliver the goods. I am prepared to meet anyone who can make a good bargain on behalf of the population of Ireland."

The time to challenge the conference, he said, was when a letter was written in July in response to the King's gracious speech at Belfast; if the same motion had been put down, with a demand for forty or fifty members for discussion, he would have waited no time in giving them an opportunity.

"I am now invited," he went on, "to state what the opinions of the government are in the middle of a conference. There are two kinds of conferences, the open conference, at which no business is transacted, though it encourages the faithful, and the conference of closed doors, which is the only conference at which you can do business. There is the conference of partial disclosure, which has all the vices and none of the virtues of the other two, and is the way to disaster."

IS READY TO RESIGN.

"Without caring one iota myself, the House of Commons must either trust its negotiators or replace them. I want to know my colleagues. I want to know whether you want us to try to make peace. If you do not, there will be no end to this. I hand to his sovereign and say: 'I hand in my portfolio.'"

"We discuss the matter in this house there will be no conference." The gravamen of the complaint, he continued, was that a conference should not be in the middle of a conference. The authority of the crown and associated with things all abhor. If there was to be a conference, it must be with those who for the time being spoke in the name of the majority of the Irish people. It was charged that these persons had secured representation by intimidation, but if men were not treated as representatives because of the methods whereby they were selected there would be an end to the British constitution.

MUST DEAL WITH REBELS.

"For the moment the government knows that the sympathies of Ireland are behind these people," he said. "The only thing the government can do is to treat them as the representatives of the people. I admit that all the Sinn Fein declared for a republic, that all the Sinn Fein repudiated the authority of the crown, but if we are not going to deal with them for that reason, there is no one in Ireland to deal with."

Recalling that Great Britain had dealt with rebels before, in Ireland on a considerable scale, the Premier asserted:

"The only issue is whether the house will say drop these negotiations; crush the rebellion first, then deal with Ireland as seems just in the eyes of Parliament."

"It is a question of the cost: if the conference is broken and it may be, I want the house to feel that it has done everything that could reasonably be expected to avert it. The first thing the government would have to do would be to strengthen the forces of the crown in Ireland on a considerable scale."

WARNING NOTE SOUNDED.

The Premier said one of the evils of guerrilla warfare was that the forces were dispersed and that there was not the same control of discipline. Unless it was necessary for the honor and security of the country, it was not the time to impose great additional burdens on the taxpayers and invite the young men once more to risk their lives.

"Negotiations are proceeding," he continued. "I would be happy if I could be in a position to announce that the great parent races which founded this empire, had decided to put an end to this feud of centuries and substitute comradeship. But I cannot conceal the possibility that I may have to make the grim announcement that it is impossible to settle without danger or dishonor."

CONSCIENCE MUST BE FREE.

"If that terrible hour comes, and someone standing at this table has to invite this house and the country to make greater sacrifices, then Britain's conscience must be free and we must feel everything has been done."

"If this empire is to be mutilated and Ireland established as an alien country on our own vulnerable flank, free to make any arrangement with the enemies of this country, free to make war on our commerce; if Ireland walks off with her freedom, leaving Britain staggering alone under the burdens thrown on her for benefits which every Irishman in the world is sharing today, whether in the country, the dominions, or America; if arrangements are insisted upon which will mean civil war between Catholic and Protestant, then Britain, I feel confident, will make the necessary sacrifices to face the necessary risk and avert such evils."

"Great issues are dependent on this conference; the fate of the empire or rather the strength of the empire, is involved. If concessions are pressed which weaken the empire, the government will take all hazards to protect it. If concessions can be made which will bring an honorable peace, which will strengthen the empire, we will

MR. ASQUITH SUPPORTS PREMIER.

Mr. Asquith, in supporting the government, said: "We are not giving a blank check or a vote of confidence. We think that the government are pursuing a statesmanlike course, and we are content to support them by every means in our power in the action they are taking. If the negotiations break down we should be confronted with a situation of unexampled difficulty and danger."

In moving a vote of censure, Col. John Gretton, Unionist, addressed the House, after the speaker had ruled out of order an amendment by Lord Robert Cecil, deploring the policy of the government in the last three years, but declaring that the averring of the negotiations would add dangers and difficulties to the situation.

HITS DE VALERA.

Edmond De Valera's telegram to the Pope, declared Col. Gretton, was a telegram of defiance, insulting to the crown, and repudiating allegiance to the King.

NEW YORK STOCK EXCHANGE.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE)

NEW YORK, Oct. 31.—Fluctuations in the stock market today were confusing, issues of the same description frequently moving in opposite directions. Dealings were fairly large, but again subject to the maneuvers of professionals.

Money rates furnished an excuse for the market's course. Call loans opened at 5 per cent, relaxed to 6 per cent at mid-day and hardened to 6 per cent in the final hour.

Developments offered little encouragement to the bull accounts. Railroad tonnage showed irregular decreases and business gains at prominent centers were neutralized by further price reductions for important industries.

Independent steel producers were reported to be contemplating lower prices for structural steel and other fabricated materials and substantial cuts were announced by manufacturers of motor trucks and rubber tires.

Foreign exchanges were irregular, the French rate being the only important remittance to display strength. German, Scandinavian and Central European rates were invariably lower.

Trading in bonds was moderate with an uneven tone. Liberty issues closed mostly at slight gains, while government and municipal changes ruled among internationalals. Total sales, par value, $14,375,000.

DEMOCRATS USE BONUS AS POLITICAL BLUFF.

With American Legion Votes in Sight, Reed and Others Clamor Vigorously in Senate.

BY ARTHUR SEARS HENNING.
(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31.—With an eye on the convention of the American Legion at Kansas City, Democratic Senators, whose party in 1920 opposed a cash compensation, clamored vigorously today for the adoption of a soldiers' bonus amendment to the pending tax bill.

Almost the entire afternoon session of the Senate was devoted to the Reed amendment proposing to retain the bonus profits and use the proceeds to pay the World War veterans a bonus. It is generally believed that the amendment will be tabled, but if it is the Democrats have still another proposal of the same nature to lay before the Senate. They are holding in reserve a second amendment that will call for the collection of interests on the foreign loans as the use of the proceeds to defray the cost of a bonus. The Republican leaders are planning to table this amendment, and some of their followers are worried over the effect such action may have on next year's Congressional election.

NEW STARTS DISCUSSION.
Senator New of Indiana, Republican, precipitated the discussion of the soldiers' bonus by asserting that the Reed amendment was unconstitutional. He contended that it proposed to tax a special class for the benefit of another class.

Senator Reed challenged him to name the section of the Constitution which the amendment violated. Senator New said he would be unable to do so without a copy of the Constitution before him. Senator Reed promptly laid a copy of the Constitution on the desk of the Senator. The Indiana Senator insisted that the amendment violated the spirit of the Constitution.

"The Republicans," said Senator Penrose, "are determined to table the Reed amendment because the bonus is a political bludgeon. They are determined to table the Reed amendment because the bonus is a political bludgeon. They are determined to table the Reed amendment because the bonus is a political bludgeon."

"The men who stood between the bonus and the great corporations, thereby preventing disaster to them, are entitled to this belated compensation," said Senator Reed. "Every man who votes to table my amendment votes against the soldiers' bonus. He casts a coward's vote, because he votes to kill the soldier's bonus, while at the same time voting to take excess profits taxes off the corporations."

"The Republicans are threatening to table my amendment because they do not want to meet the issue of the bonus squarely, but they want to run away from it. They want to run away from it. They want to run away from it."

"President Harding," said Senator Stanley of Kentucky, "was the undertaker for the soldiers' bonus and the Republicans Senators the pallbearers. It will never come to again until the Angel Gabriel blows his horn in the ear of big business."

"Our failure to enact a soldiers' bonus bill is a perfidious and indefensible desertion of those to whom we owe a debt of gratitude. What would Standard Oil, United States Steel and Pennsylvania stock be worth if the boys on the French front, who shielded it, would shorten the war for them to get out of danger? What would the stock market be worth today with the

TAX BILL PASS TO POOR HOUSE.

That is What This Year's Levy Seems to Citizens.

State Acts as Landlord Who is Super Profiteer.

Skull and Cross Bones Might do for Letter Head.

BY HARRY A. WILLIAMS.
Opening a tax bill this year is like preening a hidden spring on a parcel post bomb.

It's a form of billet doux, but with the accent on the first and last syllables.

It makes you feel like a sweet violet which has been stepped on by a farm tractor.

The bill on closer inspection reveals like a pass to the poor house. You feel as if you are paying rent for the privilege of living in your own home with some fat State commissioner functioning as the absent landlord. And the absent landlord doesn't pay the insurance on the house, or the gas or water bill, or mow the lawn.

ALL FOR THE STATE.
Furnishing one of these passports to the county farm gives you the impression you hold merely a rewardship over your salary, which belongs to the State.

It seems good to be able to hold something. It's a rewardship over your salary, which belongs to the State.

Half a dozen witnesses testified to establish certain points developed late in the trial.

Mrs. Southard was on the stand briefly and questioned as to a conversation with an insurance salesman described by a previous witness. This conversation, it was testified, was followed the next day by the signing of an application for $5000 life insurance upon the life of her husband, Gordon McHaffie. The application was introduced in evidence and identified by the insurance man testifying later. Mrs. Southard could not recall either incident.

BELIEVE EVIDENCE WILL AID ARBUCKLE.
The Republicans are threatening to table my amendment because they do not want to meet the issue of the bonus squarely, but they want to run away from it. They want to run away from it. They want to run away from it.

TESTIMONY IS EXPECTED TO SHOW MISS RAPPE MAY HAVE DIED OF WEAKNESS.
CHICAGO, Oct. 31.—Attorneys for "Fatty" Arbuckle claim they are uncovering evidence here that will make certain his acquittal when he is tried for manslaughter in connection with the death of Miss Virginia Rappe.

Mrs. Josephine Roth, one time proprietress of a maternity home, and Dr. Maurice A. Rosenberg, are the chief witnesses found here. Dr. Rosenberg made affidavit that he had attended Miss Rappe six times in 1913 for chronic cystitis. This is considered valuable as showing that she was in good health at the time of her death. The father of the child in which he conceived against the enactment of the soldiers' bonus legislation, on the ground that it would further depress the market for government securities.

"This business," said Senator Reed, "is not about the soldiers' bonus, and of course the Secretary of the Treasury could not be expected to favor it if big business did not want it."

"President Harding," said Senator Stanley of Kentucky, "was the undertaker for the soldiers' bonus and the Republicans Senators the pallbearers. It will never come to again until the Angel Gabriel blows his horn in the ear of big business."

JOHNSON SEEKS TO PAY A DEBT.

Wants Nebraska Wrecker of Party Cared For.

Exposition Commissioner is Plum Sought.

WASHINGTON, Oct. 31.—Senator Johnson of California today called at the White House, together with Senator Norris and some of the Republican insurgents of that State, in behalf of the appointment of Frank Harrison of Lincoln, Neb., as commissioner of the United States to the Brazilian exposition.

Those who predicted that prohibition would ruin the grape growers of California, guessed wrong. Instead of selling the grapes in California to wine makers there, the country to wine makers in individual homes and the grapes are being sold about $100 a ton. The vineyardist than they brought before prohibition—the difference between $100 and $1000 a ton.

ITALIANS HEAVY BUYERS.
Tremendous quantities of the grapes are being taken by the Italian population of New York for the Italian is proverbially fond of wine, and knows how to make it. Under the law, the private home may make wine for home consumption, not for sale. And all probability the Italians are not the only ones who have been buying the grapes. The receipts in New York from California grapes have increased more than 100 carloads a day. The receipts in New York from California grapes have increased more than 100 carloads a day.

MOVEMENT STILL STRONG.
The movement is still strong, although the authorities of the United States Department of Agriculture which has information of the grape growers believe that the peak of the year has been passed. The shipyard has been coming along heavier for a few weeks.

The grapes are packed in "jugs" or open boxes, each containing a little more than twenty-five pounds of the fruit. There are 800 or 900 of these jugs in a car, probably 20,000 pounds of fruit.

RUNS INTO FIGURES.
Now for a little figuring. In the 2000 carloads of grapes received in New York from California in the past four weeks, 10,000 carloads, there would be 800,000 pounds of grapes. According to those who know something of the mystery of wine making it takes about ten pounds of grapes to make a gallon of wine. The grapes from California became wine the four weeks' receipts would result in 80,000 gallons of wine.

Alongside one of these tax bills is a blanket mortgage on the farm. State crepe hangers always appear on the scene just when you have been told that the Christmas shopping early.

One of these things reads like a bill of complaints against property owners. Might as well be frank about it and unfurl the Jolly Roger from the dome in Sacramento.

HALLOWEEN WITCHES, GOBLINS MAKE MERRY.
Goblins, black cats, witches on broomsticks, yama-yama girls, clowns and some hoodlums invaded the city center last night and made merry with all with whom they came in contact. Dignity was upset often early in the evening and long before curfew had sounded the city center was a scene of confusion. The Italian community, the domicile of had lost his police.

Everyone celebrated Halloween and thousands in varied and unique costumes straggled through the streets. Confetti was tossed from passing automobiles upon the crowd, and long before curfew had sounded the city center was a scene of confusion. The Italian community, the domicile of had lost his police.

ARRAIGN COUPLE AS BURGLARS OF STORE.
Landro and Gladys Hellman are accused of burglarizing the store of S. B. Beaulieu on October 26, in a complaint issued yesterday by Deputy District Attorney J. H. McLaughlin. They were arraigned before Justice Forbes, who set their hearing for November 8. Bell was fixed at $2500 each. The defendants were committed to the County Jail until it is furnished.

(REUTERS DISPATCH.) NEW YORK, Oct. 31.—A voluntary petition in bankruptcy fixing his liabilities at $1,496,443, covered by no assets, has been filed in the Federal District Court by Franklin C. Helm, a promoter of 50 West Forty-fifth street. The petitioner was one of a group of Americans in Berlin last spring who engineered an exchange of notes between the German and United States governments in connection with proposed modifications of the German reparations and who at the same time proposed a credit of $1,000,000,000 for the Germans. ## SURPRISE SPRUNG IN CONSIDERING TARIFF.

FINANCE COMMITTEE LAYS ASIDE PERMANENT BILL FOR EMERGENCY TALK.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.) WASHINGTON, Oct. 31.—Resumption of hearings on the permanent tariff bill scheduled for tomorrow were postponed today until Thursday and the Senate Finance Committee will meet tomorrow to give consideration and probably to report the resolution extending the emergency tariff measure. The emergency tariff expires November 27, and its extension to next February already approved by the House is strongly urged by Senators from agricultural States.

Decision by the committee to lay aside the permanent bill for consideration of the emergency tariff came as something of a surprise, Chairman Penrose having announced earlier that public hearings on the permanent measure were to begin tomorrow.

Republican members of the agricultural bloc met today, however, and decided to demand action on the emergency tariff immediately after disposition of the antibeer bill.

The bloc also decided on certain tariff duties affecting farm products which they will seek to have included in the permanent tariff. Rates for the bill include: Butter, 10 cents a pound, instead of 8 1/2; fresh beef, 12 1/2 cents a pound, instead of 10 1/2; green, 2 cents a pound, instead of 1 1/2; mutton, 10 cents a pound, instead of 8 1/2; mutton, 10 cents a pound, instead of 8 1/2; mutton, 10 cents a pound, instead of 8 1/2.

DOROTHY DIX TALKS

The Dangerous Age.

BY DOROTHY DIX.

It is said that in Tibet the soothsayers have fixed upon the exact age that is the dangerous age in a human being's life. It is when he or she is 13, 27, 41, 55 and 73 years old. So during those years men and women have a special charm suspended about their necks to protect them from the perils within and without.

Whether the Tibetan rabbit foot works and safeguards its wearers against danger during the critical period of time when both sexes are as prone to make fools of themselves as the sparks are to fly upward, we are not informed. Certain it is, however, that if there exists anywhere any magic that can confute us safely over the years of indiscretion we should import it in carload lots, for we have a great and pressing need of it.

It is a curious thing that certain times of our lives should be more full of emotional storms than others; that at certain ages we should be more subject to temptation and have less power to resist than at other times; that at definite periods of our existence we are likely to commit follies and act with a lack of judgment at which we marvel the balance of our lives, but so it is. Our birthdays have to do with our fate, and certain mental and moral complaints menace us at different ages, just as certain physical ailments belong to childhood and old age.

With us, the first dangerous age lies between eighteen and twenty-two for girls, and between twenty-two and twenty-five for boys. It is then, when they are too young and undeveloped to really know their own minds, or what sort of men and women they are going to make, that they are liable to commit the supreme folly of making an early marriage.

Except in the case of a miracle, which does not happen often, youthful marriages turn out disastrously. One or the other outgrows the other one. Tastes change. The burden of life falls on shoulders too weak to bear them. The child wife is not equal to the task of running a house, and bearing and rearing children. The boy husband cannot earn enough money to support a family. There are tears, recriminations, squabbles, and fights, divorce, or else a sullen settling down to the endurance of sullen misery.

No other discovery in the world would be as valuable as that of some charm potent enough to make a boy and girl realize how fleeting is calf love, and that because they are in love with love, and shushing over with romance, is no good and valid reason for tying a matrimonial millstone around their necks, and committing untimely suicide in the sea of domestic woe.

The man who has escaped too early a marriage has passed through the first danger zone, and is reasonably safe for the next twenty-five years, but a woman has her second summer, so to speak, at thirty, provided she has not married between twenty-two and that age.

At thirty, the unmarried woman is apt to get into a blind panic over being an old maid. She suddenly realizes that all of her girl friends

Having achieved his goal he begins to think of amusing himself, and then the dream gets him. He knows nothing of the arts and crafts of the sisterhood, and any girl baby can make him believe that she loves him for himself alone even while she is robbing him of the very shirt upon his back.

When a man waits until he is middle-aged to take his play time he finds it a costly business, for the piper always charges an extra price when the old dance.

Happy the Tibetans who know just the dangerous age and have a charm against it. Alas, with us the years of indiscretion are many, and we have no magic that prevails against their dangers.

LETTERS TO "THE TIMES."

Don't Like It.

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 30.—[To the Editor of The Times:] In Sunday morning's issue The Times devotes considerable space to two signed writers on the Obichain case. When is the decent reading public going to receive a rest from the slush founded on murder?

Likening Madalene Obichain to Cleopatra, bawling singing praises of her husband and his enthusiasm in his fight to free her at any expense and rein her love, bawling! Personally I have had to give up a habit of many years of reading the morning paper before breakfast as recent headlines and stories are an incentive towards nausea. The newspaper makes a murder a prominent one, in cases of mediocre persons like the ones under discussion. Why play up people like this when history is being made elsewhere? Let's see more stories of good being done in the world instead of this rot, slush and sentimental twaddle. Remember, please, that all of your readers are not flappers and trigger-brained women with maudlin tears and sympathy for drugs of civilized society.

Modern Wren.

SAN JOSE, Oct. 30.—[To the Editor of The Times:] During a life including much foreign travel I have observed that most people everywhere have a kindly feeling toward the people of other countries. But I have observed how propaganda—often of the most subtle description—has sometimes been directed against other nations and then suspicion is created toward other lands. The nation next comes to emphasize the unjust actions of the other and forgets its own moral and political conduct. A hostile spirit is thus created.

It is openly known and charged from the most responsible European sources that these influences originate with men whose interests in some way or other are enhanced by promulgating international fears. We must expect this because both "preparation" and war result in the hard-earned assets of the many going into the coffers of the few. The opinion once having been created that war is inevitable the rest is easy. Under such conditions governments yield to the pressure brought upon them. Real motives for the prospective conflict are hidden behind plausible excuses because nowadays you must have your great moral slogans to justify war. Next, "leaders of public opinion," who are not of that ilk, approved of the threatened struggle but who did not wish to seem unpatriotic, join in the call to arms. Other citizens who had seen a better way are alienated. The governments, if strong enough, next apply conscription with its freedom-destroying corollaries of espionage and censorship. The people, often for political reasons, are kept in the dark whilst their wealth and their boys—the best of the breed—are destroyed. Who gets the blame? Members of the noisy minority, and a few others, get the blame. These members of the noisy minority are mostly safe in their offices or homes whilst "the boys" are sent to the front. When the war is over and the moral and material effects are counted, mighty few people are satisfied. How worse than foolish we are!

What is a remedy? Knowledge is not sufficient. The only practical solution is obedience to the plain teachings of Christianity. And the peoples must let their respective governments know what they want. Now is our time. Write to the President!

WM. C. ALLEN.

On Baboon Ancestry.

LOS ANGELES, Oct. 30.—[To the Editor of The Times:] I had thought that when Darwin died all the "monkey business" was ended but recently I came across a little volume called "This Simian World," written by a man who evidently believes in and is proud of his baboon great-grandfather. He states that we are quite who, or which, not only descended from the monkey family tree but that we still exhibit practically all of the characteristics of our simian ancestors. The author goes even further and explains why we could not possibly have descended from any other species of animals giving as his reasons that the human-animal would have been too energetic and purposeless for his own good, the cow-man too reflective for action the elephant-man too patient for progress, the snake-man too greedy to ever develop mentality, the cat-man too crafty for socialization and so on ad infinitum. Of all the silly rot I ever took the trouble to peruse, this is the limit.

If the author had been consistently logical he might have continued his explanations of the inexplicable moral slogans to justify war. Next, "leaders of public opinion," who are not of that ilk, approved of the threatened struggle but who did not wish to seem unpatriotic, join in the call to arms. Other citizens the yellow business there will be no quit before you get the habit.

FORMER COUNCILMAN, ENGINEER IS DEAD.

EDWARD A. GIBBS HELD CITY POSITION FOR MORE THAN TWENTY YEARS.

Edward A. Gibbs, veteran city employee, died yesterday morning at his home, 1932 Lovelace street, after an illness of about seven months. Mr. Gibbs entered the employ of the city as a deputy engineer about twenty-two years ago, which position he filled until he became ill early this year. He was 64 years of age and a native of Iowa.

He came to Los Angeles in 1881 shortly after his graduation from an Iowa university, where he studied engineering and law. He practiced law for several years and took a prominent part in early political affairs here. He was elected Councilman from the old First Ward in 1887 and served one term, later resuming his law practice until he found it necessary to take up outside work when he returned to the engineering line.

PREPAREDNESS NOTE.

Charlie Chaplin is reported as having bought more than a dozen pairs of rich and substantial suspenders while in London. He does not propose to take any chance on losing those celebrated trick trousers of his.

A BIRD OF SONG.

It is said that Babe Ruth will introduce a few songs in his vaudeville appearances. For the love of Hennessy? Who wants to pay $3000 a week to hear the Bam-bino warble "Home, Sweet Home"? Does the woodpecker think it is a canary?

THE USELESS ONE.

The scientist with his little speedometer says that the average house fly will cover more than six miles in its rather careless and aimless daily flights. There is a lot of lost motion in a fly, for after one of them has covered his six miles he is apt to be on the same bald spot he started from. The fly seems to be perfectly senseless and useless. He deserves a good swat.

BLIND EAGLES.

A blind boy recently successfully met the twenty-one tests through which the candidate becomes an eagle in the Boy Scouts. At times there has been a suspicion that Uncle Sam was behaving like a blind eagle, but when it came to meeting the tests he was generally able to make good. The tests of an eagle usually imply keen vision, but with acute development of other senses vision becomes less important.

DOWN AND OUT.

It is reported that the soviet government of Russia now proposes to recognize the foreign debts of that God-forsaken country. But what if it does? Supposing Lenin does recognize the financial obligation of Russia to this country? It is one thing for a debtor to admit that he owes. Paying it is what counts. The world will not only have to forgive Russia its debts, but will probably have to set it on its financial feet once more before it can earn its own keep.

WHEN IS A GENTLEMAN?

A Pittsburgh woman who is seeking a divorce says that in the old days her husband used to get around like a gentleman and managed to keep good-natured about it. Now that he has been running with bootleggers he is a changed man. He has become a petulant and malignant disposition and frequently behaves like the wild man of Borneo. If prohibition cannot be enforced she would prefer to keep the old-fashioned rye in the home rather than have hubby consort with moonshiners and their turbulent ways.

COMMUNITY CHESTS.

Milwaukee has created a community chest of nearly $400,000. All this was raised in a general drive and the intent is to put all the petty campaigns for minor philanthropies out of business. The fund will be administered by an independent commission and all applicants will be expected to make a showing before this board. The business men of Milwaukee prefer the community chest to the numerous and frequent drives made by individual charities. They are giving more than before—many of them—but they feel that the bounty will be better administered than under former methods. The community chest is sensible and practical. In Los Angeles it would take a community chest of something like $1,000,000 to meet the proper and worthy demands made upon it. The community chest is an annual assessment—one for all and all for one.

THE RAGGED REFORMERS.

Nevada citizens who are unhappy about politics are forming a new party—the moment they are calling themselves Independent Progressives, but this title will probably be boiled down for the christening. The organization is made up of old-time Populists, Socialists and other brands of ragged political thought, with a sprinkling of radicals from Democratic and Republican ranks. It is the grand army of the discontent and discontented and its major purpose is to blow up Wall Street and plant it to timothy. The members are quite emphatic in denunciation of the present administration. The reasons are not very coherent, but the chief objection to the Republican organization is that it is in power. The new party is against any man or group holding power or office. It will preach the gospel of the upside down and wrong side out.

CLINGS TO CROWN.

When the debacle came Emperor Charles was reported as being much relieved. He was represented as being wholly democratic at heart and to have no love for the trappings of royalty. But now it looks as if he would have to be sandbagged to keep him from chasing his fallen emperor. He is hungry for Hungary and contentiously for Austria. It may yet be necessary to lock him up or send him to the block. Nobody wants him. He has worn out his welcome in Spain and Switzerland. He is not a safe man to be permitted to run at large in Europe. He might find a home in America, but even this country does not care to become a haven for dismantled kings. The council of ambassadors might auction Charles off to see if they could get a bid. If he were single some lady might have compassion on him, but he seems to have a nagging wife at his elbow to spur him on in his quest for a throne. The junk pile for Charles.

THE LATE GEORGE W. BURTON.

It is a fine thing to say of a man after he is dead that his lifetime was full of good deeds and helpful service of constructive activity and kindly counsel. These tributes and others of a similar nature were paid at the bier of George W. Burton yesterday where gathered friends and associates of many years. They were voiced by men who had known him long and known him well. Some of them had been his pupils half a century ago when he taught school in a little schoolhouse in the little Los Angeles of the past. Others had worked with him to uphold Los Angeles and knew of the many helpful deeds he wrought on behalf of the city which he loved so well.

Mr. Burton came here from Wisconsin when he was 26 years old. He died at the age of 82 years and was actively at work until he was almost four score. Some of the prominent citizens of Los Angeles attended the little school which he taught on Fort street. Later he was an active participant in the real estate activities of Los Angeles and neighboring communities and afterward took up newspaper work. For many years and until within a few years of his death he was an editorial writer on the Times staff and for a time conducted the department in the Sunday Times known as "The Eagle."

Mr. Burton's writings reflected his character. He wrote vigorously and courageously and was lionhearted in championing causes which he felt to be right and just. Possessed of a scholarly diction, he wrote with a bold and sure touch that appealed strongly to his thousands of readers. In his ripper years his writings were tinged with a shrewd and kindly philosophy that won him a large and affectionate following among the readers of the Times.

Coming here at one of the early residents of Los Angeles and living to see the city grow from a small town to a metropolis, Mr. Burton participated in many of the stirring events that made local history. His was invariably a helpful influence. He was forceful and forward-looking and his belief in the future of Los Angeles was never shaken.

No man could love California and its manifold beauties more than did Mr. Burton. He talked about it daily and wrote two beautifully expressed booklets on the charms of his chosen land. One of his outstanding qualities was kindness. He was kind to his associates on the Times and to all with whom he came in contact. He went out of his way to say kindly and helpful things. One of his last acts was to send a contribution of money to relieve distress. His was a long lifetime full of good deeds and helpful service. The memory of his kindness and helpfulness lives after him.

"THE PRAYIN' COLONELS."

The defeat on Saturday of Harvard's crack football eleven by Centre College, Danville, Ky., known as "The Praying Colonels" because of the habit of praying before each game, brings up the question of whether or not that most interesting aggregation will be invited to play at Pasadena on New Year's Day.

The whole college could be brought out here for about the outlay which would be involved in transporting a dignified eastern team, with all of its coaches, conditioners, subcoaches, student-officials and faculty advisers.

It is also perfectly proper in the South to speak of Centre College, instead of the Centre team, for the team is the college. There are only 225 students attending the unusual institution and ten professors do all of the teaching. Every student is ipso facto a candidate for the football team and is expected to present himself every afternoon during the season to be punned for the benefit of the regulars, if not good enough for the first team himself. One or two of the professors also can be found with the "scrubs" almost any day.

Centre, with 225 men to draw from, defeated Harvard, with 5273 students. However, Centre is no new light on the football horizon. Her performance a year ago against Harvard gave promise of a triumph come or later and for at least six years she has been a terror in the Southern Intercollegiate Athletic Association's realm, where she has made it most uncomfortable for Vanderbilt, the University of the South, Georgia "Tech," and other institutions heretofore recognized as supreme in that section in sports.

"The Colonels" are the barbarians of football. They simply seem incapable of playing the game in a sociable way. During the training season the "squad," a very small one when compared with those to be found at most universities, is not pampered, but is given a heavy diet, in which generous portions of rare beef figure prominently, and is made to feel that it is its Christian duty to eat the other team alive. The results show themselves in the scores that are piled up against one powerful team after another.

As a drawing card at the annual contest in Pasadena they would be wonders and would give a display of football which would make any eleven on this Coast know that it had been in a game.

However, the chances are that, even if Centre should be chosen by the Pasadena committee at its meeting this month, the purpose is to blow up Wall Street and plant it to timothy. The members are quite emphatic in denunciation of the present administration. The reasons are not very coherent, but the chief objection to the Republican organization is that it is in power. The new party is against any man or group holding power or office. It will preach the gospel of the upside down and wrong side out.

DIVORCE AND ELOPEMENT.

One of the last judges who he will not grant divorces to those who wed in haste—that is, not unless the evidence is as makes the decree imperative. If the judges would hold to this rule there would be fewer divorce cases; but that is no sign that runaway marriages would be lessened. When certain young folks think they are in love they are immune to reason. The experiences of those who have gone before are as nothing to them. The only practical safety valve is for the State to require a platonic notice and the elapse of ten days or more before a ceremony can be performed. The showing of the divorce courts furnishes neither interest nor warning to lovers.

NOT YET DEAD.

The Nonpareil League met signal defeat in the recall election in North Dakota, but the leaders of the league assert that the N.D. still stands for "Not Dead." There's a feeling, however, that with an exposure of the frailties of the league it will be permanently shorn of its power.

"It Can't Be Done, General!"

THE RAILROAD RATE SITUATION.

Wages and conditions of labor in all basic industries are regulated by major economic conditions, not of a single section or nation, but of the entire world, over which governments and employers have no control. When the basic conditions of world industry change governments, capital and labor will resist in vain. It is possible to destroy industry, as has been done in Russia; but it is not possible to maintain it indefinitely on a fictitious basis.

These are truths that cannot be ignored in the wage adjustments now taking place in the United States. The government might fix a minimum wage of $10 a day for railroad employees in all departments of the service, just as it fixed hours of employment under the Adamson law; but the result would be a schedule of freight rates that would paralyze the transportation system of the country. The train crew would be operating only empty, for the government could not commandeer enough freight to fill the cars.

California industry is now menaced by high freight rates and low tariffs. The difference in cost between water transportation from Europe and rail transportation from California is turning the eastern markets over to foreign producers and manufacturers. Lower freights and higher tariffs are absolute essentials.

Railroads cannot operate for more than a very limited time at a loss. They have no accumulation of capital on which to draw. Transportation conditions are in a continual flux, and the percentage of profit which the railroads are permitted to make is so low that railroad securities are no longer considered a profitable investment. The railroads have already reached the limit of their borrowing capacity. The incapable alternative now confronting the railroad employees is whether they shall accept a reduced pay envelope or receive no pay envelope at all.

Capital and labor alike have their limitations. The railroad managements must collect the money in freight and passenger payments before they can put it into the pay envelopes. Railroad securities are now held by a greater number of persons than the total number of railroad employees; and the stockholders justly insist that the men must earn the wages they receive, must pay themselves. They will not consent to assessments in order that the men can be paid higher wages than the earnings justify.

There is an inflexible rule in industry that the wages of every worker must be paid by the thing he helps to create. At the same time, workmen are entitled to and must receive a living wage; and any industry that cannot earn a living wage for its employed automatically ceases to function.

Why are the railroads asking permission to reduce wages? Demagogues will reply that it is because they want to make greater profits. But a moment's lucid examination of the railroad situation exposes that sophistry. Freight rates are now so high that they are stifling industry and steadily reducing the amount of freight handled. These rates must come down or the transcontinental lines will have to be abandoned because they have ceased to be profitable. But rates cannot be lowered until the cost of operation is reduced. So it becomes apparent to every intelligent observer that the railroads could not continue to pay the present scale of wages, however much they might desire to do so.

Will the railroads reduce freight and passenger rates and thereby help to lower the present cost of living if the employees accept the proposed wage reductions? That is something about which the railroads have no choice. Freight and passenger rates are controlled by the Interstate Commerce Commission, not by the railroads. If the commission should order a 50 per cent reduction in rates the roads could collect no more. They must accept the reduction or cease operating trains. The commission is not selected by the railroads, but by representatives of the people elected for that purpose. To say that rates will not be cut is to argue that the people of the United States are no longer capable of governing themselves.

These are the days of the "crocial" football game.

A WELL-CONDUCTED WORK.

Churches, like all other institutions of civilization, have but one excuse and should have but one object for their existence—and that is the furtherance of civilization, the advancement of men and women to a higher, nobler plane of thought and conduct. Those intrusted with the writing of the Bible doubtless had two grand purposes in view, the fraternalization of individuals and races and the development of men's faith in the loving Father of all. In so far as any institution serves toward these two purposes it is worthy of commendation and support, and in this respect the churches founded on the Christian doctrine have undoubtedly led and still lead all other organizations. In this regard it is good to note the steady increase in the general and broad study of the scriptures, both by church attendants and nonchurch-goers. The ministers, officials and church workers in general of Los Angeles are to be congratulated upon their intense interest in Bible study and upon their splendid organizations of Sunday-schools and Bible classes. Especially in the construction of new churches is this great movement noticeable, for within the last few years no church of any considerable dimension has been built by any denomination that has not had included in the building plans ample room for the constantly growing Sunday-school and Bible classes. This is as it should be—and it proves that so far as Los Angeles is concerned, G. Bernard Shaw is mistaken in his statement that the modern church is but a monument to man's pride and intellectualism. Our churches here are not mere stained-glass palaces wherein the attendants feel themselves tolerated guests, compelled to listen to the intellectual thunderings of so-called doctors of divinity. On the contrary, our temples of worship are homes in which devoutly inclined men and women, as brothers and sisters, may meet to render reverence to their common Father and to study His wondrous works and ways. Intellectual interests and exercises indeed have a place in the church, just as the social instinct also has an opportunity for legitimate manifestation, yet here the intellect strives toward its own spiritualization and the general social interest is focused not upon material benefits, but upon political or economic advantages, but upon an understanding of those good laws and principles by which the universe is sustained.

Today thousands of men and women in Los Angeles, who admit that they "don't care to go to church to be preached at," are finding their way, Sunday after Sunday, into the churches where they study the great doctrines of life for themselves and discuss the eternal questions with other earnest students. The "cradle rails" are steadily increasing in numbers and the intermediate and Bible classes are usually crowded. What does this mean? It means the molding of material, human material, for better, stronger churches in the future—and, better still, it means the sure development of a citizenry that will be wholesome-minded, honest, kind, free from criminal impulses.

NO TIME FOR DISPUTES.

The country is facing a winter of breadlines, soup kitchens, poverty and distress due to the unemployment situation. Furthermore, it is facing a crime wave, for "Satan will find work for idle hands."

Unemployment in the United States today is due primarily to the dispute between capital and labor. There must be co-operation and it must come at once. Capital must get out from behind tax-dodging methods in connection with government subsidization. It must stimulate production. Labor must come down from its pinnacle of power and meet wage reductions. Freight rates must be lowered. Steel and building products must stand another slide.

A winter of idleness will eat into the heart of true Americanism. Walk-ins, not walk-outs.—(Topeka State Journal.)

Evelyn Nesbit, one-time wife of Harry K. Thaw, attempted to kill herself when efforts were made to evict her from her New York apartments. The story of this pretty butterfly is about to end and we often wonder if her mother, who introduced her to Stanford White when she was but 16 years of age, ever has any pangs of remorse.

CORN "PONE."

BY GEORGE M. HUGHES.

Anyone who has journeyed to the country that revolves about Little Rock, Ark., knows that the editor of the New York Times never ate a piece of "pone" in all his life and that he knows nothing about the technique of its creation. Before one is qualified to speak with authority about the "pone" he must go through an arduous course of training. First and foremost he must be an Arkansawyer, roll his "britches" up to his knees, sit on a cool bank and wait for "them" to bite. But as an adjunct he must have a good, cob pipe well filled with "long-green." Then he is in a position to observe Mary Ann as she wields the hoe on the hillside corn patch.

Through the long, hot summer days he must continue to sit and watch Mary Ann. When she has finished the "crap," the corn is cribbed and a "turn" is shelled he may call old "Babe" the family mule, from her favorite place in the shade and take the "turn" to the country mill, some three or four miles away. There he will meet "Reddin" Thompson, Sally Jones' brother, "Tug" Baber, Foreman, not guilty of the truth since he was first able to talk, Joe Weaver, whose principal means of income is running a foot log across Turkey Creek, and in this way a means of learning the "pone" story.

Handy, sitting out his twentieth year waiting for his pension claim. These gentlemen know more about the pone after it has been placed upon the table than any other group of men in the whole State of Arkansas.

Some time later, say along about the shank of the evening, the "turn" has been ground and is ready for its journey homeward. When home is reached it is then too late for supper, and cold victuals alone are left on the kitchen table.

The following morn is one of blessed sunshine. The birds are singing the heavens with song and happiness. The air is fresh and bright with the scintillations of a world of dewdrops. It is an idealist's time for slumber, a place for dreams of "pones" to come, and sweet, butter, yellow as the tons of gold in the banking houses of New York's plutocrats. Yes, there may be thoughts stealing through the sleeping mind of butter milk freshly churned and sunk deep into the spring sparkling from the hillside.

By and by it is noontime and the soft voice of Mary Ann comes to awaken the dreamer. She is carrying words that should call forth a Lazarus. "Dinner is ready. Do you feel like eating a bite?"

All the elemental in man, all the refined, cultivated tastes of the gourmet and set a-tiptoe with anticipation. Will he eat a bite? Yes, friend, indeed he will. It is only a few steps to the stool at the side of the table where everything is in ready order. The pone, piping hot from the oven covered with bright, red coals, the butter cool and firm, with Mary Ann's finger prints grooved deep on its surface, are near the empty plate. The faithful cast-iron knife splits the pone wide open and each almond-shaped half is quickly and thickly spread with the golden butter. In the meantime Mary Ann has poured from an old bucket, still dripping with the ice-cold water from the sparkling spring, a quart cup filled with the most satisfying liquid the brain and genius of man can so far conceive. It will cool the lips of the famished biter, give strength to the pioneer's hardy muscles and soothe the parting hours of the patriarch. 'Tis buttermilk from the sparkling hillside spring.

The "pone" is hot; the butter is melting; the milk is cold. If the editor of the New York Times had a soul under these conditions and circumstance it would melt away into a soothing dream of happiness.

"Marsh" Henry, stand up and be sworn to tell the truth, the whole truth and nothing but the truth. "Ain't it so?"

RIPLING RHYMES.

HIGH LIFE.

The dame, resolved on suicide, sat down and wrote some parting lines, explaining why, before she died, and took in all her divers signs. Too much high life, and here's the end, I've fractured man's and nature's laws; and then she shot a lady friend and killed herself without a pause. You read it in the public prints and doubtless gave it little thought, so many tales of crime are daily to your doorstep brought. The words of moralists seem vain, the folks must have their guilty time; too much high life, that will explain one-half the carnival of crime. Too much joy riding in the night, when sober men are in their cups; too much pursuing cheap delight and letting duty loop the loops. Too much of crazed and fevered love, of wedding pledges cast aside; and now the thistles grow above the slayer and the sullen. The wave of crime still sweeps along and doubtless hour some victims fall; right seems submerged beneath the wrong; too much high life explains it all. Too much high life has filled the jails with delegates bereft of hope, with foolish dames and flattered males who face the hangman and the rope. WALT MASON.

PEN POINTS

The American people put the "can" in American.

There is said to be money in bags. But it must be the "taker" kind.

Reckless drivers of automobiles ought to be fitted out with bumper licenses.

Remember the old-fashioned way with which the girls used to comb their hair?

Almost time for another nod of the Pickford Nevada divorce case. "And then," etc., etc.

Of course, a young woman who spells her name Madalynne is handicapped from the start.

A flawless powder is one of the latest inventions. The next thing will be a harmless shell.

Watson may be elected leader of the Senate. What a shame! Sherlock Holmes make out of that?

There ought to be no trouble in getting back to normalcy now. The watermelon season is about over.

There are indications that the Mexican "revolution" is about to break out in the same old place.

Nobody seems to be opposed to the increase in the local police force by the yeggs, and they shouldn't.

We never had it in our heart to begrudge the man who collects the garbage all the money he can make.

The wall that has stood around Peking for centuries is about to be taken down. The world "do" more.

A subscriber writes to say that he supports a family of six persons on $10 a week, but he forgets to tell what they eat.

Pickle manufacturers say every true American ought to eat a pickle a day. Without any idea of boosting the pickle trade, of course.

With the price of diamonds getting down to the plane of normalcy is short time the wearing of the gem will not be confined to the railroad conductors.

If the prohibition enforcement agents persist in raiding the place where the moving-picture people forgo their better angels, they are likely to be compelled to put more money in the savings banks.

If the reduction of the army on tinus there won't be much to be demobilized in this country with the Disarmament Conference. The organization is now nothing is a skeleton.

Don't know but that we should be in favor of dancing if the ladies would dance with their feet instead of other parts of their body. Feet used to be used for dancing.

Family skeletons look fierce in a bathing suit.

Father A. B. Belknap, parish priest of St. Patrick's Church, Lead, S. D., was lured from his home and shot to death. Seems to be the open season for the killing of clergymen. A session of a Vigilance Committee might help some.

Friends of W. G. McAdoo are organizing in his behalf for the Democratic nomination in 1924. Chances for a Democratic victory in that election look so hopeless that the Democrats will not only have to start early, but must keep going at their best speed if anybody is to know that they are in the race.

An addition of one hundred men to the active police force of Los Angeles is recommended in a majority report to the City Council. There is plenty for the police to do in Los Angeles and with the additional help there may be at least a curb set on the Satrialla of crime and robbery. But at that, a policeman's lot is not a happy one.

All is not gladness in the camp of the beer and wine advocates. Under the ruling of Secretary Mellon there are only nine States in the Union where it can be sold by medical prescription. California being among that number. Either State prohibition laws or limitations make it impracticable to secure the liquor in the great majority of the States.

LOS ANGELES HARBOR.

"Ha-ha!" they laugh, "A harbor-ette!"

Ho-ho! A toy, a plaything where a child may sail his boat, or watch:

Where little ships may ride a storm!

Ar, scooters. Laugh your fill—just wait!

So laughed a hare in olden time. And laid him down to rest—dream—

Till his slow rival should appear—

Whom he would arise and on To seize the prize so surely his. No Golden Gate have we, nor yet Point Loma's friendly arm, nor yet Our ships from nose of wind and sea. Nature withheld from us and gave To you these gifts. What thank Shall we Despair? Have we despaired? Not we!

A richer gift hath nature given—Men—men, of high spirit, iron-wind. With vision keen, to see: with wit To carry on Where mountains block Their path, they raise. Where mountains tains lack.

They build. No handicap too great! Look to your laurels, men of South And north. We throw the laurels down.

These argosies from far Cathay Beneath Point Fermin shall find rest.

And superdreadnaughts ride secure Within the Angel City's port. Ay, scooters. Laugh! Be merry now. He laugheth best who laugheth last.

MRS. OBENCHAIN IN COURT TODAY.

Woman to Appear as Burch Goes on Trial.

Ruling in Erbstein Case is Due This Afternoon.

Madalynne Issues Appeal for Reserved Judgment.

Mr. Woolwine in reply to a number of accusations made by a grand jury which, it was said, was investigating the conduct of the District Attorney, He, the District Attorney, under investigation, said that his accusers were "character assassins." I ask him now who is the character assassin?

I have not the sworn statements of these men. Messrs. Furthmann and Wyman, but if the Bar Association of your county will let me have them for a few hours I will appear before a judge in this county—any judge—and will ask for and procure a warrant charging these men with perjury.

"I will prove that charge, not by Charles Erbstein, who is disgraced by your District Attorney, but by the judges, the officials and officers who have true cognizance of the dishonesty and baseness of this charge."

Later in the day Mr. Erbstein stated:

"Upon arriving in Los Angeles, though, I had been here less than one hour, Mr. Furthmann called me on the telephone and told me that he was at my service if I so desired. Though I informed him I had no business which I cared to transact with him he called me repeatedly on the telephone at my hotel, proof of which I now have in the form of telephone operator's call slips, containing the name of the man who telephoned to me."

READY FOR THE CROWD AT TRIAL.

Standers Barred in Burch Hearing; Ropes Expected to Hold Back Curious.

Arrangements were completed yesterday by county authorities to handle the expected crowd today at the trial of Arthur C. Burch, who is accused with Mrs. Madalynne Obenchain of the murder of J. Belton Kennedy. Judge Reeve announced yesterday that no one will be permitted to stand in the courtroom and that strict decorum will be maintained.

Clark Reeder, the bailiff, will have charge of the courtroom and Deputy Sheriff Nolan, Bright and Modie will handle the crowd. Rugby Ross, the court clerk, will have charge of all records.

In order that all persons interested in the trial may learn what takes place without attending a long hearing, the court has allotted thirty seats for the use of various newspapers and news associations. The transcript of testimony, which is admitted will be long, will be taken in shorthand by Elmer Kincaid and at least one other court reporter, and typed by Miss Betty Graydon, Charles Shaw and William Kaune.

It is expected that the street leading to the courtroom will be roped off to keep back the crowds which have been evident at other trials.

Scores of men and women besieged the Sheriff's office and the courtroom yesterday, seeking to obtain passes or admission cards to the trial. Every excuse imaginable was given, ranging from a "correspondent for the home paper" to "like to listen to trials."

started, computing on the basis of the government figures of five persons to a family. Including apartment houses, dwellings and flats, housing facilities for 267,000 persons were provided, representing more than $4,500,000 of the total valuation of the month, or 47 per cent of the valuation and 45 per cent of the number of permits.

SHOW STEADY GROWTH.

These figures are significant as an indication of the continued and steady growth of the city, which is estimated by the Chamber of Commerce at the rate of 5000 persons a month.

Another unusual feature of the October record is the fact that virtually no large permits were issued. The biggest permit taken out during the month was for a commercial structure, to cost about $180,000. The total valuation of mercantile buildings for the month was slightly above $700,000. More than 1700 single dwellings having valuations of nearly $4,000,000 were started, as were also 252 double dwellings, valued at $1,131,000, and twenty apartment houses involving a total expenditure of $474,000.

Other permits included seven factories, 1121 public and private garages, fourteen gasoline filling stations, six industrial buildings, four motion-picture studios, thirteen schools, involving a cost of $751,000, one theater and eleven warehouses.

EXPECT YEAR'S RECORD.

Officials of the building department regard as a certainty a total of $50,000,000 for the year.

Long Beach has not only broken her own high record for building activities for a single month but in all probability has broken the city among the first ten centers of population in the entire country. With a total for October of $2,130,000 the city outdistanced San Francisco and all other Coast cities with the exception of Los Angeles. Glendale's total of $705,430 included permission to erect 201 buildings, all but three of which are for homes.

ARTILLERYMEN TO MEET.

A reunion of the One Hundred and Forty-fourth Field Artillery, one of the California regiments, who served overseas, will be held on December 10. The committee in charge asks all former members of the regiment to send their names and addresses to Dr. W. H. Daniel, 704 Pacific Mutual Building, Los Angeles.

Ex-Convict Gets Prison Term for Stealing Automobile.

Howard J. Ford was sentenced to San Quentin for from one to ten years yesterday by Judge Hovey for stealing an automobile. The report of the probation officer stated that Ford had served a year at Alcatraz and had been released when the theft was committed.

COMMUNITY SERVICE LAUDED BY MANAGER.

George Dickie, general manager of the National Community Service, who was in Los Angeles yesterday on a tour of inspection, declared that the local community service has developed children and neighborhood matinee playground work perhaps better than any other city. LAST TRIBUTE PAID "EAGLE."

Rites Held for G. W. Burton, Fearless "Times" Writer.

Editorial Force Co-Workers Are the Pallbearers.

Cremate Body of Veteran Who Won Large Following.

"The Eagle" is gone. For years he was known to the community. His stirring flights were followed by many admirers. Shrewd were the piercing eyes which gazed down upon the toilers of life in critical thought of vain struggles. Buoyant, serene and fearless, he sent messages of inspiration and faith to those who learned to know him. Then the day came when "The Eagle" soared away. Into the blue vault of heaven, circling higher and higher, smaller and smaller he became—a mere speck against the translucent glory of a new day. A blink of the eyes of the gazer and lo! "The Eagle" has gone. The focus has been lost, and only into the vision of memory shall he come again.

Four score and two were the years of George W. Burton, veteran newspaper man of this city, at whose funeral yesterday final tribute was paid by a concourse of friends. Services were conducted at 2 p. m. in the chapel of Garrett & Co. They were marked by simplicity. Rev. Robert Renison, rector of the Episcopal Church of Eagle Rock, in which community Mr. Burton lived at the time of his death, officiated. Mrs. Marguerite Baldwin, soprano, sang "Jesus Lover of My Soul" and "Rock of Ages," the two songs he loved best. Acting as pallbearers were co-workers of The Times, on whose staff Mr. Burton served for many years as an editorial writer, conducting the department known as "The Eagle," and handling matters pertaining to real estate as an authority.

The bearers were Frank X. Pfaffner, R. W. Trueblood, A. B. Dodge, Charles F. Hayden, H. M. Finley and Hugh McDowell. The remains were cremated. Mr. Burton leaves a widow.

DRY AGENTS ACCUSED OF RUM DEALS.

Investigation of Charge Made by Asserted Member of Ring is Started.

An investigation of the charge made in a sworn affidavit, signed by Ernest Thede, one of the defendants in the so-called Glendale booze ring, charging that the keepers of certain purported soft-drink parlors in the Boyle Heights district are being protected by Federal prohibition agents, is being made by Asst. U. S. Atty. Herron, who has charge of the prosecution of the defendants whose cases have been investigated recently by the Federal grand jury.

Thede was one of the defendants in this case, and a witness before the grand jury investigating the activities of what is known as the Glendale booze runners. Later on he made a statement to Mr. Herron giving names and dates and a searching inquiry is on. It is probable that California Prohibition Enforcement Director Mitchell will be here to take charge of the investigation.

Just which members of the force are involved, is unknown, but Mr. Herron admitted yesterday that such an affidavit had been filed. Ever since his arrest Thede has been making his headquarters at the prohibition enforcement agent's office, with frequent calls on the United States Attorney and his statement has grown out of his willingness to tell all he knows about the manipulations of the whiskey runners that operated in and around Glendale and Burbank, previous to the arrest of half a dozen of the leaders.

Mexico Hurls Tax Bombshell at Fishermen.

Another bombshell was thrown into the ranks of fishermen at Los Angeles harbor yesterday by the Mexican government, when lobstermen and fish dealers were notified to pay a tax, amounting in some instances to several hundred dollars, to Mexico. The tax, it was explained, is applicable to every individual or concern engaged in commercial fishing in Mexican waters and is based on the gross revenues for the last ten months.

Failure to pay the tax, the Mexican government has warned American fishermen, will result in the barring of the delinquents from further operations in Lower California waters.

The Mexican Government's order, issued last Wednesday, forbidding purse seine fishermen from operating in Mexican waters, has boosted barracuda, bass and other fish 15 per cent on local markets, it was said yesterday.

Divorced Pair's Fight for Tots Up to Children.

Harold Webb and Marie Gregg were husband and wife once. Mr. Webb got a divorce and both remarried. There were two girls by the first marriage, and yesterday Mrs. Gregg came into Judge Toland's court to obtain their custody. She said the girls need a mother's love.

Mr. Webb declared that what they need is a strong hand. Judge Toland took the middle ground. He said that too many parents muddle things. The best results in bringing up children are obtained by firmness tempered with affection, he said. He continued the case to have the girls brought into court to decide which parent they wish to select.

WILL ANDY SMITH'S CALIFORNIA STEAM ROLLER CRUSH THE TROJANS?

S.C.'S STREAKY PLAY MAKES DOPE UNCERTAIN.

Bears Win Trojans Will Have Lots of Good Company Scattered Along from Washington to Ohio.

BY HARRY A. WILLIAMS.

Had King Solomon been present in Cambridge, Mass., Saturday, when Centre College stung Harvard to the quick, he would have turned to the young lady who had been jabbing an elbow at his ribs during every exciting play and announced in sonorous and impressive tones that "All things are possible."

A few years ago the prospect of an eleven from a small college rising up and smiting the Crimson colossus was as unlikely as perpetual motion and the squaring of the circle making a success of round dice appear today.

The incident comes as a reminder that football does have a tendency to be an open book.

WORRY THE BEARS.

Questionably the tendency of the successful conquest in the league will do much to hearten U.C. and give California something very about. Also, it will tend to the public perception of the fact, and make it more widely known, that the Bears are not invincible. On paper, U.C. appears to have as good a chance against California as Centre has against Harvard, but, of course, paper is a frail and unreliable fabric, even when festooned with facts or panned all over with publicity.

Littleton Loses to Mike Gibbons at New Orleans.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.) NEW ORLEANS (La.) Oct. 31.—Mike Gibbons of St. Paul was given the decision over Happy Littleton of New Orleans in a fifteen-round bout here tonight. Gibbons was said to have clearly the better of the fight on points, although he was knocked down twice and was booed and hissed by the crowd. Gibbons weighed 166½ pounds and Littleton 160 pounds. In the first round Gibbons was floored and took a count of nine. He was knocked down again in the twelfth, putting in a claim of foul, which was disallowed. In the opinion of local sport writers, Littleton had the better of the fighting. The bout was marred by constant wrangling over technicalities.

Middlewest Gridiron Heroes.

Rival Captains in Big Battle Next Saturday.

Alonso Stagg has one of the best eleven in history at Chicago and Capt. C. E. McGuire (top) tackle, is one of the best men on that team. He will lead his men into action against Ohio State, captained by G. E. (Truck) Myers, in a crucial battle this week-end. Truck will be remembered as the man who played opposite that strapping young star, Brick Muller, in the California-Ohio State game last New Year's Day. If Chicago beats Ohio State decisively and captures the "Big Ten" championship it is possible she may be seen at Pasadena on New Year's Day.

WHITTIER FOOTBALL CRAZY.

Root Fans Talk of Nothing But Their Undeclared Eleven; How Stanton Was Outfoxed.

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.)

WHITTIER, Oct. 31.—By handing Caltek a one-sided defeat last Saturday afternoon the Whittier College football eleven has cleared the path to a glorious battle with Pomona on November 11 for the conference championship. The Poets have S.B.U.C. yet to meet, but that doesn't frighten them to any considerable degree. Pomona, on the other hand, is scheduled to go to Redlands next Saturday, and if the Sagehens come through unscathed from this argument they'll have every reason to feel mighty thankful. The Poets have a strong feeling for the Bulldogs and don't expect to have a harder conference battle this year.

Whittier has gone football crazy, coo-coo with dope-football dope. They can't be blamed very much for just at present the conference does have a strong feeling for the Bulldogs and don't expect to have a harder conference battle this year. Whittier has gone football crazy, coo-coo with dope-football dope. They can't be blamed very much for just at present the conference does have a strong feeling for the Bulldogs and don't expect to have a harder conference battle this year.

Much might be said about that game Saturday in the way of individual stars. Suggert, Thompson, Reese, Pickett, Buckmaster and several more. But a good many folks are beginning to see what some have been seeing for some time and that is that the Poets have a coaching staff that would be hard to beat. Both Breuckner and Perry have been coaching assistants at Whittier and helped to put out two of her greatest goals. After leaving Whittier, in 1915, Coach Perry went to Coronado High School. For three years under Perry's leadership Coronado's goal has never crossed in a league contest. Last year Perry returned to Whittier and with a string of green material put a team in the field that was a strong contender. Carl Breuckner is a graduate of the University of Iowa and one of the best tackles ever turned out in the Middle West. In his last year he was picked for the All-Western. He is giving some mighty valuable help in building up a line that will stand a lot of punishment.

FROM KICK-OFF. For the second time in conference football history one "Fox" Stanton's team was scored upon from the kick-off and it is hardly too coincidental that both occurred on the same field. Stanton is a student of players almost to a fault. Twice has the "Fox" been "outfoxed" through this very characteristic. In 1915 Whittier defeated Pomona, 21-0. "Bull" Finch took the Sagehens' opening kick and ran it eighty-five yards to a touchdown.

Finch had one peculiar characteristic. Nobody knew it better than "Fox" Stanton. Whenever Finch took a kick-off he invariably ran straight down the middle of the field. Wild horses couldn't have kept him from it. Stanton evidently played to gain by this. The Sagehens bunched to the center of the field, and sure enough the big Post full-back came straight down the center. But the two teams had hardly closed

CLASSY LADS IN FEATURE EVENT.

Rubidoux and Edwards Mix It in Wind-up.

Mike Doll and Sailor Biss to Swap Blows.

Seven Good Bouts Carded at Doyle's Tonight.

Ad Rubidoux of Riverside and Danny Edwards, colored bantam-weight, will box the main event at the Vernon arena tonight. It will be the first time the two have met. Rubidoux stacks up as one of the #### Hardest Hitting Boys of His Weight on the Coast.

It is the sort of combination that should make an interesting contest. The semi-wind-up will bring Mike Doll and Sailor Biss together. Biss fought a tough draw with Steve Dalton a week ago, while Doll has been winning regularly of late. Both are hard hitters and Biss is the better boxer of the two. It figures to be a slugfest from the first bell to the last.

The feature preliminary will see Bud Soules and Jake Stahl in action. Soules has earned something of a reputation as a puncher, while Stahl is an old-timer who is well known to Vernon fans. He has been winning a lot of bouts around San Diego during the past few months.

Young Hoppe of San Diego is matched with Muff Bronson in the fourth bout on the card. Bronson has failed to make any great showing in a couple of bouts at Hollywood and he must step fast against Hoppe tonight if he hopes to get any chances to start here in the future.

A slugfest match is scheduled when Jack Martin meets Mike Goulo. Clever, Eddy Danny, who beat Johnny Woodruff easily last Friday night, is matched with Young Cumpston at 143 pounds. Ted Morgan and Willie Shyrock, 118-pounders, will box the first bout on the card. Dick Donald will referee.

CENTER MAY AGAIN INVADE THE EAST.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.) CAMBRIDGE (Mass.) Oct. 31.—Center College's football team, which Saturday won from Harvard and made the standing in these inter-sectional games a victory each, in all probability will be invited to come East again next year. This was the word that came from Harvard graduate authorities.

STANFORD ALUMNI GATHER TONIGHT.

Stanford alumni will talk things over about this year's game with California when they gather around the dinner table at the City Club at 8:30 tonight. Sheriff Bill Traeger, a football hero of the Dead Year-days, will preside. No donations or subscriptions will be asked, and all alumni of the male gender should feel free to turn out, it was said last night.

FEW BIG GAME TICKETS LEFT.

If southern football fans want to see the football game between California and U.S.C. at Berkeley next Saturday and haven't tickets they have one resort, and that is to buy their pastebards from Graduate Manager Henry Bruce at U.S.C. today. California Field holds 25,000 persons. All tickets to the game have been sold in the north. The only ones unsold are the few held by Bruce. If they aren't taken today they will be sent north tonight and fans going from here without tickets will be disappointed when they reach Berkeley.

BUELL'S FOOZLED DROP GAME'S TURNING POINT.

Referee of Harvard-Centre Tilt Says Crimson Quarter's Pitiful Try Unnerved His Mates.

BY ROBERT W. (TINY) MAXWELL.

PHILADELPHIA, Oct. 31.—Centre College, with a team at least 50 per cent stronger than that of last year, scored a touchdown against Harvard Saturday which seemed to be 50 per cent weaker than in 1920. This lone touchdown, which was not even honored by having a goal kicked after it, was enough to hand the Crimson its first defeat since 1916, when Tufts, Brown and Yale walloped Dadman's team. However, this is about the first defeat suffered by Harvard since Fisher took charge as head coach.

Psychology played an important part in Saturday's contest. Last year the southerners came East with a wonderful reputation. They were good, admitted they were good and a lot of people believed it. They were expected to give Harvard a hard battle and the young men coached by Bob Fisher went into the game determined to run up a big score. There was as much spirit and aggressiveness in the 1920 contest as in any Yale or Princeton game.

This year Centre traveled north unheralded and unubung. They had no McMinn, Red Roberts and a couple of other stars, but no one dreamed they had a chance. That is no one except the Centre players and Harvard expected a soft game and kept most of the regulars on the side line. The coaches believed the second string of men would be able to hold the visitors and score at least twice.

NO STAGE FIGHT.

But the southerners proved to be a different proposition. They had no stage fright that affected their play at the start of the 1920 game. Instead, they played as if it were on their own home field, with their own friends cheering them to victory. And, speaking of friends, the southerners had thousands of them on the field. I remember this because every time a penalty was given against the Centre players, the crowd would breathe hard and make affiant sounds like one suffering with the asthma. One of the Centre players when they were lined up to receive the opening kick off looked around at the crowded stands which were overflowing with humanity and said to me:

"Mistah, how many people do you reckon are here today at this game?"

"About 45,000," I replied. "Gooh, ah mighty," exclaimed the player. "There's more people watching us play than there are in any town in Kentucky outside of Louisville."

But the crowd was forgotten as soon as the whistle blew. Those Southerners played winning football.

Athletes in Good Shape and Ready for U.S.C.

Andy Smith Orders Secret Practice All Week.

Promises to Give Trojans Both Barrels.

BY ED R. HUGHES.

(EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.) SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 31.—The members of the victorious California football team arrived in Berkeley this morning about 9 o'clock. There was no one at the station to meet them. Probably a bit early for the students to turn out.

The athletes are all in good shape—better than they have been for weeks—and at the turnout this afternoon it did not take them long to work the corners out of their muscles. Andy Smith will have secret practice this week, for he is going to work up some new stuff for the U.S.C. game Saturday. The boys are now hardened and can stand the stuff, so considerable time will be spent in polishing plays.

Ten Nichols should be ready for that game and if Toomey can go as he did at Portland the Bears will, for the first time this year, be able to show a flashy backfield in action. So far this year California has depended on sound, conservative football to win. But next Saturday Andy Smith proposes to give U.S.C. both barrels. And if Nichols and Toomey are both in shape at the same time there will be plenty of the open, flashy stuff—the kind that gives the spectators a thrill. U.C. rates a lot on speed and the passing game, so if the field is fast and dry the game should be a corker. No need to work up rivalry between these two teams. It is there already, and it is the real thing.

American Grid is Favored in San Francisco.

(BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.)

SAN FRANCISCO, Oct. 31.—American football has been returned to favor in the high schools of the San Francisco Athletic League after several years of Rugby football.

Up in this year only Rugby football was played by the high schools in the league. Recently the Board of Education decided to permit American football and immediately eight schools organized eleven. The high schools deserted the American game originally when the two big California universities, Stanford and the University of California, switched about ten years ago. Three years ago Stanford followed California and came into the American football ranks.

KERNEL COOTIE—LOST IN THE FOREST

U.S.C. STREAKY PLAY UNCERTAIN

encounter the hardest battle of its career, with the possibility of State-shaking surprise.
A SAFE MARGIN.
Smith's steam roller was just strong enough to defeat Washington State. In these days of open football, two touchdowns is just a safe margin—hardly a sweeping victory. California had the "break"—two of them—and turned each "break" into a touchdown. That's good football, and made possible because Smith teaches his men to follow the ball.
It takes a good team to defeat a high-class Northwestern team. This is realized by all who saw Washington defeat Brown and Oregon overthrow Pennsylvania.
For this reason Stanford's stock takes a boost, as Saturday the Cardinal defeated the Oregon Argies, rated as a conference championship possibility. Which gives California something to worry about. Instead of pointing his eleven chiefly toward the U.S.C. game, Smith must now keep in mind the Stanford battle, for the Palo Altoans are always most pugnacious against their ancient enemies, the Berkeleyans.
SOME FACTS.
Getting back to Saturday clash, it may be recalled that U.S.C. brought one of the formidable Northwestern elevens down here and decisively defeated it last season. Not only that, but Oregon on that occasion failed to make one first down against the Trojans. There is no basis for believing that the U.S.C. machine has deteriorated since that time. Of course, the fact that Oregon stepped off the train only a short time before the game militated against its chances.
Both California and U.S.C. will be coached to the last minute. It is doubtful whether Henderson and Smith have any superior in the country. Henderson's record of success is longer, Smith's more prominent. But a coach can carry an eleven only so far. He must have the material. In this respect Smith has a big edge, but it is significant that he made only one substitution in the Washington game. Frequently, reserves seem to be the whole battle—at other times a negligible factor. Centre with a paucity of reserves whipped the whole number, bulky Harvard squad.
Incidentally Henderson isn't so shy in man power. He employed practically three sets of backfield men against Pomona, and all the combinations proved around rainers.
WASTE OF TIME.
But in seeking light it seems a waste of eyesight to look long and hard on that Pomona game. The Trojan performance was too streaky to be really illuminating—brilliant flashes punctuated with periods of deadly football drab—as likely a lousy play which shames a prep in the primary grade for football pikers, a dazzling open field dash, a miserable fumble or a catch of a forward pass which would reflect credit on a Speaker or a Cobb, an unexpected runner nailed far behind the line or one flitting around the enemy end behind superb interference, a buck which crumpled up and recoiled, or one which ripped through the line before which tense muscles and tough bones seemed to snap, sometimes striking with heavy blows, penetrating the enemy ranks with postcard-like incisiveness, again hitting like a tack hammer and stabbing like a knitting needle. Such was the shameful behavior of the Trojans. If that was their real game they are not a good football eleven, despite their 35-0 victory, as big league football teams are rated. But if they allowed themselves to show flashes of their real form, they are a good eleven.
WAS IT SIGNIFICANT?
Was it significant that U.S.C. seldom made headway when its backs struck the line where stood Baker and Denzink, the veterans? That there were four fumbles, and most of them appeared inexcusable, inside the Pomona ten-yard line. That at times Oyer and Haughton played rings around the U.S.C. ends? That U.S.C. recovered only one of its numerous fumbles, and that it fumbled much more frequently than the experienced Pomona. That Leadingsham was erratic and largely unreliable in his punting, and outkicked by the less highly rated Doughty? Leadingsham must show fifty per cent improvement in his kicking over Saturday, or the edge in that department alone would practically insure a California victory.
Twice in Saturday's game, U.S.C. provided for the runner as perfect interference as we have ever seen on any football field. At other times this interference simply didn't seem to form. But for the most part it was effective. Oyer and Haughton ever they wanted it. Frankly, they appeared at least sixty points better than Pomona, which is a prominent contender for the Southern California Conference championship, but does that demand the respect enough to class with California?
JUST QUESTIONS.
U.S.C. goes along winning all its games. "Yes, but who has U.S.C. really kicked?" demands the skeptical and the critical.
"Dempsy has knocked out all comers, even though they're dubs, is dangerous. And any football team which beats all-comers is dangerous."
Charley Dean is one of the best football players in the West today. If Henderson really has a surprise it may be Phil Tiersan. He looked great Saturday, and Lockett loomed large.
Not a tip in any line. Just a dash at the whole situation.
U.S.C. a good team, possibly a great one, is meeting a superlative. If the Trojans are defeated they will have plenty of good company scattered all over the landscape from Washington to Ohio.

Redlands Has a Dandy Squad of Basketers.

(RELANDS DISPATCH.)
REDLANDS, Oct. 31.—The University of Redlands has organized what is believed to be one of the fastest 145-pound basketball teams in the State. Free season teams are open for at least four games with any high school, college or club team in Southern California. In a practice game with former University of Redlands stars, who won the conference championship for three years, this team emerged victors by a 40-13 score.
Nucleus of the new team is composed of William Troyer, captain, who is also captain-elect of the Bulldogs varsity quintet, and Kenneth Knights, the other forward, who has played on various championship teams and is another University of Redlands varsity man. Walter Tolson, last year's Baptist center, is holding down the pivot position.
WHITTIER WINS.
Whittier State grid eleven are surely going some these autumnal days for they took Jefferson into camp yesterday afternoon on the latter's grounds, 29 to 13.

POWER DEBATE
HEARD BY CLUB.Women Won By Arguments
Against City Control.Speaker Warns of Debt Under Municipal Plan.Urges Federal or Private Work at Boulder Canyon.

BY MYRA NYE.

In a hotly contested debate yesterday at the Woman's City Club between J. W. Kemp, representing the Public Power League, and Leslie R. Henry of the People's Economy League on the subject "Resolved that the Hydroelectric Power Developed at Boulder Dam be Owned by the City," Mr. Henry, vigorously upholding the negative side, won the silent decision of the majority by his logic, force and array of irrefutable arguments.

"This is a fight for Los Angeles to free herself from the load of debt," Henry declared, "and the people of this city are entitled to know the truth about the proposed municipal venture."

"It would be a load so heavy that she would be forever unable to raise the money to pay it," he declared, "and the city would be a municipal debtor."

"It would take $150,000,000 to build that great dam and bring the power 250 miles across desert and hills. Such a sum placed as bonds upon the market would threaten the city with absolute stagnation. We should get this power which we undoubtedly need in the quickest way possible. This is in the interest of economy which my opponent has ridiculed. But the city can not get it most quickly. There is still $60,000,000 of bonds to be sold on the market before the dam is developed and we are under obligations to do this. But the Federal government or private interests under Federal control could do this very soon."

"Another pressing problem is the relieving of congestion in traffic on Broadway. If we begin tomorrow and work together as a whole city we will not have the problem solved for five years. This is only one of the many that confront the city. In the meantime the development of hydroelectric power would have to wait."

"If the State takes up the problem by amending the Constitution it would place in the hands of one man"

TO MAKE GOOD CUSTARD.

It is a peculiar fact that many a woman who can do the most difficult kind of fancy cookery, cannot bake a simple cup custard successfully. This, no doubt, is because in many homes custards are not popular. Every housekeeper should know how to make this simple dish, however, in case of family illness, when such foods are required. And of course the mother of small children should bake the dish frequently.

To make delicious cup custards, beat two cups of sweet milk over a good fire (this will take about two minutes.) Butter four small custard cups or glass ramekins. I generally use the ramekins in making this dessert. My individual ramekins have curved sides and are one and one-half inches deep and measure three and one-half inches across the top and two and one-half inches across the bottom. Four of these glass ramekins can be filled by this recipe.

Break into a medium-size bowl three eggs which have been slightly beaten (only enough to color the whites yellow,) and add also to this bowl one-third cup of granulated sugar and one-fourth teaspoonful of salt. Mix well, then pour in the two cups of milk slowly. Mix again and fill the four cups or ramekins with the mixture. Sprinkle the tops lightly with grated nutmeg, and set the small dishes in two bread pans which have had a little cold water poured into them.

and his five associates such a political power as would be a menace not only to our part of the State but to the whole. The Federal government or private corporation under governmental control are the proper powers to accomplish this task."

Mr. Kemp, speaking first for municipal control, occupied the time given him by describing what hydroelectric power is, saying it is "generation of power by means of water, which is the most abundant and cheapest of all fuels. It is a power which belongs to the city. He concluded by saying, "My opponent will tell you that it will ruin the city to own this power, then I hope you as voters will see to it that the city ruins itself."

Sunset Meeting.
Mrs. Ernestine Schumann-Heink, the great contralto, sent (put two of the cups in each bread pan.) The water should be halfway to the top of the cups.

Place the two pans in a very moderate oven and bake slowly. At no time during the period of baking should the water in the pans boil, as that will cause the custards to whey. Do not be afraid to open the oven door now and then and slip your finger into the water around the little cups; if you are not an "old hand" at baking custards, this will help you to guard against boiling the water. In a very low oven it will take two and one-half hours for the custards to become firm. To determine when this point is reached, slip a silver knife through the custard; if the knife comes out clean, the custards are done.

Newly wed. Answer: To remove the smudgy polish from your furniture, apply a soda made of lukewarm water and a good white soap, follow with clear warm water, dry well with a cloth, then apply one of the several good waxed end of the market. I cannot give trade names in this column, but if you will send me a stamped, self-addressed envelope I will gladly send you the name of a good wax-oil furniture polish in a personal reply.

The Daily Fun Hour.

ASTRABAD AND ISPAHAN.
A leader is chosen, named the Shah. He sits on a chair higher than the other players and informs them that he is about to make an address from the throne, and that, in the course of his speech, he will mention the name "Ispehan" all the players must rise and bow as he will do. He tells them also that when he utters the name "Astrabad" he will rise and bow, but he forbids them to imitate his action with regard to Astrabad.

Once started, this game is very lively. The Shah introduces the names Ispehan and Astrabad as often as possible in the course of his address, as for instance: "I left Ispehan" (all bow) "to journey to Astrabad" (Shah bows) "and when I arrived there from Ispehan" (all bow) "I found conditions so bad in Astrabad" (Shah bows) "that I demanded: 'Why is it thus in Astrabad' (Shah bows) 'and not in Ispehan' (all bow). 'Why is Astrabad (Shah bows) 'so bad? 'Why is Ispehan' (all bow) 'spick and span'?" etc.

The Shah should speak rapidly, at the same time watching the players. If any one fails to rise and bow when Ispehan is named, or does not bow when Astrabad is named, the Shah calls the "Shah Richards" or whatever the erring player's name may be, and must take the former Shah's place, making another address from the throne, and stopping the latter at Astrabad. The Shah detects a player bowing to Astrabad or failing to bow to Ispehan.

WHY
DOES SUGAR DISSOLVE MORE READILY IN HOT WATER
THAN IN COLD?

While apparently the simplest of chemical operations, the dissolving of sugar in water is a most interesting and instructive process. In reality, one of the mysteries which science, with all its advances, has been able only partially to explain. We know that some substances will dissolve in liquids and that others will not—a difference due to their composition—but when it comes down to a definite statement of what takes place when the solution forms, the question is much more difficult, particularly as there are a few substances which will dissolve in cold water, but not in hot.

The general rule, however, is that hot water effects a more rapid solution of sugar, probably on account of the fact that the water has expanded and there is more space between the molecules, which therefore permits of the easy entrance of the particles of the dissolved substance. This explanation is, for the most part, correct, but it does not explain the fact that, as yet, we are unable to explain the process which occurs every time we put a lump of sugar into a cup of coffee, save in the most involved and technical of terms. We know by experience that the majority of substances will melt more rapidly in hot water than in cold, but when it comes to the reason for this we can only theorize, owing to the exceptions which occur in different cases.

Women of Middle Age

THE critical stage of a woman's life usually comes between the years of 45 and 55, and is often beset with annoying symptoms such as nervousness, irritability, melancholia, heat flashes which produce headache and dizziness, and a sense of suffocation. Guard your health carefully, for if this period be passed over safely, many years of perfect health may be enjoyed.

Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound is especially adapted to help women through this crisis. It exercises a restorative influence, tones and strengthens the system, and assists nature in the long weeks and months covering this period. It is prepared from medicinal roots and herbs, and contains no harmful drugs or narcotics. Its value is proven by many such letters as these:

Afton, Tenn.—"I want other suffering women to know what Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound has done for me. During Change of Life I was in bed for 18 months and had good care, but did not improve. A friend advised me to take Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound, which I did, and in a short time I felt better. That was five years ago, and now when I feel run down and nervous I take the Compound and it always does me good. I wish all women would try it during Change of Life, for I know it will do them good."—Mrs. A. KELLEY, Afton, Tenn.

Thomas, Okla.—"I first used Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound in my girlhood days, by the advice of a friend. At the age of 47 I was troubled with dizziness, hot flashes, and became very weak so that I was unable to do any work. I took Lydia E. Pinkham's Vegetable Compound with the result that I felt better and stronger than I have for years. I have also given it to my three daughters, and always with good results. The Vegetable Compound is certainly grand for the ills of women."—MRS. J. G. SWARTZ, Route B, Thomas, Okla.

OFFICER KILLED IN PLANE SMASH.

Naval Air Craft Meet in Collision.
Fall Eight Hundred Feet to the Ground.
Occupant of Second Machine Badly Injured.

[BY A. P. NIGHT WIRE.]
SAN DIEGO, Oct. 31.—Lieut. Winthrop E. Blackwell was instantly killed and Daniel V. Tomlinson had both arms broken, following a collision between two Navy combat airplanes here late this morning.

Both aviators were attached to Combat Division No. 2, Air Squadron, Pacific Fleet, which the U.S.S. Arctostook is the mother ship. Blackwell was the pilot of the first plane, and Tomlinson was flying in the second. According to reports of the accident, the plane piloted by Lieut. Blackwell collided with the plane in which Tomlinson was flying and tore away one wing of the Tomlinson plane.

The collision occurred at a height of about 800 feet, it is estimated. Blackwell quickly saw the damage that had been done to the Tomlinson plane, which immediately began falling, and in an effort to aid Tomlinson in maintaining his balance, circled about with the idea of creating a suction. While engaged in this task Blackwell apparently lost control of his plane and started to plunge toward the ground when about 400 feet in the air.

Both planes struck on mud flats on the shore of San Diego Bay about midway between the naval training station and the marine base. Blackwell, according to Navy officers, was instantly killed by the fall. Rescue parties reached the scene within a few minutes and extricated the two airmen from the wreckage. Tomlinson, in addition to having both arms broken, received a fractured leg and other injuries. It was stated at the Navy hospital, to which he was taken, that there is small chance for his recovery.

SAVE BOY FROM TERM IN PRISON.

Withdraw Felony Charge in Justice Court; Girl Injured in Automobile Accident.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]
POMONA, Oct. 31.—Upon motion of District Attorney's office, the case against Leslie J. Shelton of Venice, charged with passing a worthless check upon a local restaurant, was dismissed today and the prisoner pleaded guilty to a charge of obtaining money under false pretenses. Judge U. E. White sentenced the boy to pay a fine of $20 and to spend thirty days in jail. The jail sentence was suspended upon immediate payment of the fine. Shelton also made good the amount of the check given the restaurant proprietor.

Previous good record of the youthful offender was responsible for the lessening of the charge against him.

SERIOUS INJURY.
Suffering from injuries which are feared will prove fatal, Helen Stairs, eight-year-old daughter of Prof. and Mrs. W. Stairs of Covina, was injured in an automobile accident following an automobile accident which happened yesterday evening. The girl is suffering from a fractured skull.

Both Prof. Stairs and his wife were badly hurt when their machine collided with another car when the drivers attempted to pass at a point on the boulevard where a fallen tree obstructed the roadway. It was not necessary to take them to the hospital, however. The girl was thrown from the machine and her skull fractured by the impact with the paved highway.

REFUSE OFFER FOR PROPERTY.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]
RIVERSIDE, Oct. 31.—The Mahala Oil Company which has brought in Riverside county's first oil well, near Corona, has refused an offer of $800,000 for the 160-acre tract in which well No. 1 has been developed, officials stated today.

It is estimated that Mahala No. 1 will produce $100-barrel twenty-five and one-half gravity well. It is believed the gas pressure is sufficient to make pumping unnecessary.

It is stated that arrangements have been completed with the Standard Oil Company for piping the oil to one of its lines.

The derrick for No. 2 is completed and work will be commenced on the second well in the near future. Eight wells are to be drilled on the 1120-acre lease.

Smoke Screen Newest Method of Highwaymen.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]
SANTA BARBARA, Oct. 31.—A smoke screen for victims of highwaymen is the latest. Charles Maas, local hotel owner, returning from Los Angeles last night escaped two highwaymen by quick wit. He was driving along Sherman Way, toward Ventura Boulevard, in San Francisco Valley when a big automobile containing two men passed his machine going forty-five miles an hour.

As it went by one of the men leaned forward and discharged a revolver at Maas. Instead of a bullet the gun threw about him a cloud of black smoke, obliterating the road ahead.

He slowed up and quickly whirled his car about. The robber car went on some distance, stopped, then turned back and ran toward where he believed the Maas car would be. Instead they saw the car bowling along in the opposite direction.

Maas says it was evident the smoke screen was sent at him on the supposition that not seeing the road ahead, he would become dazed and stop, but when he whirled his car the action left the smoke screen to one side and he knew it was up to him to escape.

UNION PRINTERS STAGE WALKOUT.

NEWSPAPERS IN IMPERIAL VALLEY CRIPPLED BY ACTION.

[EXCLUSIVE DISPATCH.]
CALEXICO, Oct. 31.—Union printers employed on the Calexico Chronicle, an afternoon paper, walked out at noon today, upon orders from the International Typographical Union, through the Imperial Valley Typographical Union. The reason given was that Bert Parrin, proprietor of the Chronicle, refused to sign a scale presented by the union calling for $44 for a forty-four-hour week.

An extra, issued with the help of the union printers during the last hours of their employment, stated that the Chronicle will not be published again until next Saturday, and from then on a semi-weekly publication will be issued which will enable it to again resume daily publication.

The proprietor in his announcement says that the ultimatum was presented to him at 8 o'clock this morning.

It is reported that every union printer in Imperial Valley obeyed the typographical union's order to walk out. The Evening Press and Morning Progress at El Centro are attempting to issue at the usual times, the work being done by the proprietors and their business office employees.

The Imperial Enterprise, it is said, will not return to work in any office whose proprietor does not sign the scale, which the publisher declares is a demand they are unable to meet, under present business conditions.

Opportunity's Bald Spot
No Hair on the Back of His Head
Plenty in Front.

An old proverb says, "Opportunity has long hair in front, but the back of his head is bald."

This is just another way of expressing the thought that to grasp opportunity, you must catch him when he's coming toward you. After he has passed by, there's nothing to lay hold on. The same idea is conveyed in the phrase "Grasp Time by the forelock."

Business Property Opportunities
By keeping constantly in touch with developments relating to business properties in Los Angeles, we frequently come across some wonderful opportunities—opportunities that might easily make fortunes for those who are in a position to grasp them.

If there is a possibility that you will at any time in the future be considering the sale, purchase or leasing of business property, it will pay you to get in touch with us.

Remember that Opportunity's bald spot is on the back of his head. Let us help you get ready to grasp Opportunity by the forelock.

ROAD IN MALIBU MAY OPEN SOON.

Action Waits on Signing of Decree by Judge Trippet.

Court Rules Condemnation
Judgment is Final.

Future Battles Must be in Tribunals of State.

Announcement was made by the Supervisors last night that barring unforeseen circumstances, the Malibu road will be thrown open to public travel as soon as U. S. District Judge Trippet signs the decree that he handed down yesterday in the case of the Malibu Land Company vs. the county, holding that the judgment of condemnation is final and that the Federal court cannot issue an injunction to stay proceedings in the State court. Under this decree future proceedings must be fought out in the State court, from which the case at issue was carried.

Former Judge Grant Jackson of counsel for the plaintiff said the course of his clients was undetermined following the decision, but he asked that the court delay signing the decree, which was allowed.

FINAL JUDGMENT.
The judgment of condemnation, said Judge Trippet, had been affirmed by the Supreme Court of the State and is a final judgment. A temporary order was issued restraining the defendants from taking possession on the ground that the county was proceeding, as asserted by the plaintiff, in violation of the terms and conditions of the judgment rendered in the condemnation suit. After the trial of the case had begun, the county had secured a writ of the Superior Court to place it in possession of the property condemned, and the county proceeded in pursuance of the judgment of condemnation and the writ issued by the Superior Court. Objection was raised to the writ issued by the clerk of the Superior Court, but Judge Trippet held that it was not necessary for him to decide that question. The writ was issued under the seal of the court and is in the hands of the sheriff. The orderly procedure is to move the court to have the writ recalled, he said.

COURT HAS POWER.
That the Superior Court has the power to issue a writ of assistance to place the plaintiff in a condemnation suit in possession of the property condemned, Judge Trippet said he had no doubt. The possession hereafter granted the county was not full and complete, and in the opinion of Judge Trippet it is the duty of the Superior Court now to determine whether or not the county is entitled to possession, and out of respect for the authority vested in the State of California, he would not interfere in that proceeding. Proceeding Judge Trippet said: "It is well settled law that a court will often stay proceedings pending an appeal from a judgment dissolving a temporary injunction, though the court may be of the opinion that the parties securing the injunction may not eventually prevail. The law prohibits this court from issuing an injunction to stay proceedings in a State court. The bill was dismissed without prejudice, in order that the rights of the parties to future litigation might not be jeopardized."

CALIFORNIA PAINTING EXHIBIT OPEN TODAY.

ART DISPLAY TO BEGIN AT SOUTHWEST MUSEUM;
PRIZES OFFERED.

The first annual exhibition of paintings, restricted to California artists, will open today at the Southwest Museum. There are eleven pictures on the walls of the museum gallery, specially decorated for the occasion. Seventy-four of these are the work of Southern California artists, the remainder coming from the San Francisco district. The pictures are to duplicate those being shown at the California Art Club exhibition at the Museum of History, Science, and Art, at Exposition Park, which still is in progress.

The Southwest Museum exhibition will be opened with a reception beginning at 4 p.m., today and continuing until 8 p.m. The Mayor and the City Councilmen will attend. The preview was held Sunday night, when the artists were entertained by the museum officials and a group of society women headed by Mrs. Hancock Banning. The exhibition will continue through the month. There will be four prizes: $150, $100, and $50 to be given by a jury decision, and a prize of $100 awarded by popular vote. Each visitor may cast a ballot for his favorite picture. The jury of awards is composed as follows: Samuel L. Kingman, Tucson; Benjamin B. Hampton, Los Angeles; Ernest A. Bachelor, Pasadena; Lockwood De Forrest, Santa Barbara; Frank L. Von Blum, San Francisco.

Local Attorney to be Checked Up by Government.

An investigation by the office of the United States Attorney into the charge made in open court last Monday by Morris Wolfson, who has just pleaded guilty to concealing his assets from a receiver in bankruptcy, to the effect that a well-known attorney of this city had advised him to jump his bail of $5000, is not yet concluded. In U. S. District Judge Trippet's court yesterday the matter went over for a week to give the Federal authorities an opportunity to check up on the statement of the defendant.

While the name of the attorney was not given in court by Wolfson, his identity is known, and if the charges made by Wolfson prove to be true, there is certain to be a sensation in local legal circles with a possible disreputable of the offending lawyer.

The internal revenue collections by the office of Collector Carter show an increase in round numbers of $20,000, over the total collections for October, 1920.

The receipts of the Los Angeles postoffice for the month ended last night amounted to $429,611.61, or an increase of 10.97 per cent, compared to the same month last year. The receipts for October, 1920, totaled $387,127.59.

NOT SEEKING FUNDS
TO FIGHT BLUE LAWS.

The motion-picture industry is not soliciting funds to combat blue laws and censorship nor has it authorized others to do so. W. J. Reynolds, treasurer of the Affiliated Picture Interests and secretary of the Motion Picture Producers' Association, declared yesterday. He has been asked that merchants and others have been solicited for funds. Mr. Reynolds says that his office, 1004 W. L. Hollingsworth Building, has notified if any more of these solicitations appear.

TO PUT HARBOR
IN BOOST FILM.Service Commissioners Want
Views of Shipping.Injunction Suit Failure as Dampener of Spirits.Plan to Spend Tax Money is Blithely Forwarded.

A mere trifle such as a taxpayer's injunction suit to prevent the Board of Public Service Commissioners from spending $2500 or $25,000 of their revenues by producing a municipal-ownership propaganda motion picture, seems not to worry the commissioners, for yesterday Commissioner Robinson visited the City Hall with E. C. Ward, a motion-picture director, to enlist the services of the Board of Harbor Commissioners in making the picture.

It is a long, long walk from the Boulder Creek section over in Nevada and New Mexico to Los Angeles Harbor, but the enthusiastic commissioners and the equally enthusiastic motion-picture directors have determined that it would be a splendid argument for municipal ownership of hydroelectric power plants (which have already cost the taxpayers more than $5,000,000 to meet the interest and sinking fund requirements on the bonds issued for their construction) to show the docks at Los Angeles Harbor in full operation, with ships discharging cargo.

"Great stuff!" said Director Ward to President McKee of the harbor commission yesterday afternoon at the City Hall. "We can show the harbor commissioners in action. It will be a bully picture. Five reels—Los Angeles of today—Los Angeles of the future—action!"

Being a booster for Los Angeles Harbor, President McKee allowed that it would do no harm to tell the world in as many hundred feet of film as Commissioner Haynes or others would permit of the great port development here, and so next week directors will bark through megaphones and cameras will click and the glories of the harbor will be told.

Whether or not the picture will ever be released remains for the court to say, but Commissioner Robinson declared that if the courts decide the use of public funds for a motion picture is illegal, ways and means will be found. It has been reported that in the event of a decision against the appropriation of the commission's revenues for a propaganda picture, Commissioner Haynes, who is a wealthy man, will finance the film himself.

Investigations yesterday showed that the five-reel film has not as yet been given a title. Several have been suggested, among them being, "Boulder Creek Dam or Bust."

BOTH LEFT FLAT,

Declares.

Several days ago Samuel L. Dean filed suit for divorce, charging that Mrs. Jennie Dean left him flat. Yesterday Mrs. Dean filed suit for separate maintenance, charging that it was her husband and not she who left.

But the affair is not as slung as it sounds. Mr. Dean stated that his wife left him "flat" when she punctured the four tires on his automobile after walking a mile and a half to the point where the car was parked. Yesterday Mrs. Dean said that her husband left her flat Sept. 22, 1921, when he deserted her.

UNIONS' THREAT.

OWNERS STAND FIRM.

"All the local houses are standing firm," he continued. "We are sure we are right and we are satisfied when the stage hands learn the true situation there will be no sympathetic strike. We do not expect our houses to be dark, but it will be better for them to be dark than to have the unions in complete charge of all our affairs and the managers without voice in the management."

He declared many of the theaters in which pipe organs are furnishing the music have received letters from patrons complimenting the houses on the fact. The organs seemed to be enjoyed more than small symphony orchestras and none of the theaters reported any falling off in patronage. Last week was reported one of the best weeks in the past several months in point of attendance and several managers have begun negotiations for additional picture attractions, the added cost being offset by the money saved now that no musicians' salaries have to be paid.

"It is possible the musicians' strike may add to the number and class of pictures being shown at moderate cost," explained one manager. "Without the heavy cost for music many of the theaters can bill special attractions without increasing the admission price and that heretofore has been impossible with one of the best weeks in the past several months in point of attendance and several managers have begun negotiations for additional picture attractions, the added cost being offset by the money saved now that no musicians' salaries have to be paid."

A favorite here and a favorite there have been gathered together for this value offering—silken weaves that have taken on a price one-third and, in many instances, one-fourth of rightful marking. Plaid taffeta, printed radium, plain satins, fancy baronette, fancy crepe poplin, sports silks—and hosts of others, 36 and 40 inches wide.
